Community Group Questions: Romans 12:1-2; James 1:2-4

Would you say that you have a “grounded heart and rational brain” or are you more open to allowing God work through you?

Can you think of a time when you felt the Holy Spirit move or prompt you to do something?

Read and reflect on Romans 12:1-2: Put this passage in your own words (what does this say to you?)

In James we read that we should consider it pure joy when we face trials because testing our faith produces perseverance. How do you usually react to trials in your life?

Can you think of a time when you felt “called” to do something?

Dustin closed his message by asking the question “what are you here for?”. He said the word ‘here’ is not referring to the Church, it’s bigger than that. So, what are you here for or another way to put it...“what’s your God given purpose on this Earth?”

Depending on how you answered the last question what are some steps you can take to work toward moving closer to fulfilling that purpose?
