Matthew 6:25-34

Believe today because:

I. I have clothes on my back and food in my stomach.

Matt. 6:25-26, Matt. 6:28-32

II. I have a God who cares for me more than the birds.

Matt. 6:26-27

III. I have what I know today, not what I don't know tomorrow.

Matt. 6:33-34

1. Never trade what you do know for what you don't know. - C. Smith

Base Camp Discussion Questions

1. When have you trusted God in a daily-life situation? What did it look like for you that day? How did you do it? What were the benefits? How did it help?
2. Read Matt. 6:25-34 together and discuss how it hits you.
3. Pastor Rusty quoted Pastor Chuck Smith during the sermon: "Never trade what you do know for what you don't know." What impression does this make on you right now? Is there anything you're having difficulty-trusting God with at this very moment?
4. Was there anything new you learned from the message today?
5. Break up into groups and pray for areas where more faith is needed.
