Message Notes

---

Sermon Passage: Psalm 23.

Shared Engagement and Preparation

The Compass is a daily devotional and study guide for individuals, families, and Base Camps. The Compass begins devotions on Monday and leads up to the Sunday which will focus on the week's passage. In this way, the whole of the church engages in God's Word and prepares for our time of worship and preaching.

Deep Engagement and Doable Application

In order to allow for deep impact by God through His Word, The Compass centers on one passage in three ways — as individuals, with others, in our corporate gatherings — and focuses on applying what God is showing us, not biblical information itself. Life transformation happens when God's people depend upon and live out what He has revealed to us in His Word.

Consistency Over Time

With a tool such as The Compass, we can mistakenly measure personal spiritual success or failure based on whether we've completed a given day's devotion. Rather, use The Compass as a resource for individual and community growth. If you miss a few days, move on and seek growth; God will honor this.

Our prayer is that God will bless you as you seek to connect intimately with Him, intentionally with His people, and influentially in His world.

The Compass Passages for 2/1/16–2/6/16: Psalm 8.

Monday, February 1, 2016

Read: Psalm 8.

Reflect:

Throughout the Psalms you've studied in this series, David has praised God for His surpassing greatness and acts of power. Here, David is inspired by God's creation.

Reflect on the greatness and wonder of God's creation (Ref. v. 3), and journal several things about God's creation that are amazing to you.

What times are you most often reminded of God's greatness through His creation? What special way could you respond each time you witness God's surpassing creativity?

Try to find the words to How Great Thou Art by Stuart Hine. It's a bit like Psalm 8. Meditate on it throughout this week.

What transforming thoughts and/or actions were revealed to you today, and how might you put them into practice?

Venture outside and observe God's creation. Try to notice something new. Praise God for His creative power and greatness.

Tuesday, February 2, 2016

Read: Psalm 8:1-4.

Reflect:

David believed God was the amazing creator of the universe. This majesty of God is meant to “still” or silence the foe and the avenger (v. 2).

How does this belief silence the “foes and avengers” in your life?

How do you use God’s creation to bring peace to others--or “silence the foe” for them?

Think of the contrast between who the awesome Creator God is and who you are. Is this comforting or frightening? Why?

What transforming thoughts and/or actions were revealed to you today, and how might you put them into practice?

People who don’t know God may be intimidated by, or even afraid of Him. How could Psalm 8 be a message of peace or comfort?

Wednesday, February 3, 2016

Read: Psalm 8:2-6; Genesis 1:26 and Genesis 2:4-7.

Reflect:

How would you answer David's question, "What is man that you are mindful of him?"

How are you, "Ruler of the works of (His) hands?"(v. 6)

If "all flocks and herds and beasts of the field" are under your feet (vs. 6-7), how does this apply to your daily living?

What transforming thoughts and/or actions were revealed to you today, and how might you put them into practice?

Consider the privileges and responsibilities of being the pinnacle or the crown jewel of God's creation.

What is your commitment as a servant and steward in this creation?

Thursday, February 4, 2016

Read: Psalm 8:4-8 and Isaiah 40:26.

Reflect:

Write the phrases from Psalm 8 that declare how God has loved and esteemed you as man or “son of man”:

Consider the fact that God created each of the stars and calls them each by name (Isaiah 40:26). What does this say about how He knows you?

How does God uniquely know you?

How does this realization influence your relationship with Him?

How does God use you uniquely?

What transforming thoughts and/or actions were revealed to you today, and how might you put them into practice?

Meditate on God’s love for you, (Ref. 1 John 4:19 & John 13:34), and how He esteems you (Ref. vs. 4-8).

How could you uniquely appreciate and love someone this week?

Friday, February 5, 2016

Read: Psalm 8:4-8; Psalm 17:8 and Matthew 10:29-31.

Reflect:

The phrase in Psalm 17:8, “apple of your eye”, actually refers to the important part of the eye that sees--the crucial part that must be protected.

Considering the Psalms and Matthew verses, journal why you are important to God.

What does God’s love for you say about who He is? List several characteristics of God shown through His love, (e.g. He is a provider, He is a protector).

What transforming thoughts and/or actions were revealed to you today, and how might you put them into practice?

Psalm 8 tells you the Creator of the universe has loved and crowned you with glory--to join Him and to rule in His majestic creation. You can trust that, “He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion.” (Philippians 1:6).

In what will you trust God this week?

Saturday, February 6, 2016

Read: Psalm 8 and John 3:16.

Reflect:

How is David's amazement at the Creator's love for us similar to the message of salvation in John 3:16?

When you share God's love for man--do you speak of God loving the world, or as God-loving individuals? Why?

What transforming thoughts and/or actions were revealed to you today, and how might you put them into practice?

How will you be intentionally interested in others this week? How will you invite them into God's work and creation as God has invited us in Psalm 8?

At church tomorrow, listen for the message of God as Creator and Lover of the world and Creator and Lover of each individual. Be ready to pray over and share with someone who needs this message--in your neighborhood, in Base Camp, or at church.

There's an Augustine quote which is sometimes misquoted and misunderstood: "God loves each of us as if there were only one of us to love." Do you agree or disagree? Explain.

Building Our Base Camp Family

This is week one of our suggested four-week pattern for Base Camps: intergenerational, adult study, mixed, invitation/service. Each week will have an intergenerational element (such as the meal); then there will be a focus for the meeting that follows the pattern and is attentive to God's Word and the age mix.

Preparation: Have finger paint and finger paint paper available for the children and teens to create a picture of the amazing world God created. Display the pictures.

Begin your discussion with the reading of Psalms 8:1-9. Have someone read the passage with expression. Discuss various ways you can honor the Lord. Is this a routine in which only adults should participate? God does not need us to praise Him, but He loves it when we do! How will you praise our Lord differently in 2016?

Ask the children and teens to show the pictures they created. Think about all God has created and discuss the reasons God should be praised. In Psalms 8 you see God created the moon, stars, and entire world. Read verse 3 again. It states God used his fingers to create our beautiful world. Does Psalms 8 do an adequate job of praising your Lord?

End with a prayer of praise for your God.
