

REMNANT'S REST

Mark 1:35

Jesus got up, left the house and went off to a solitary place, where he prayed.

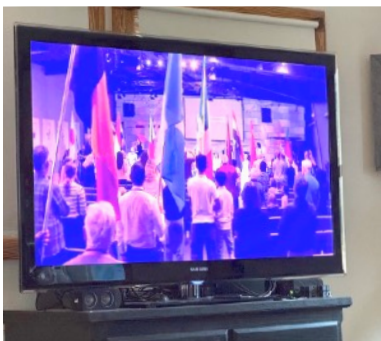

It has been a beautiful fall season here. The color changes have been amazing. We are now Home Group leaders and hosted our second Home Group meeting. The outdoor fireplace has seen a few fires as the pleasant heat of summer evaporates into the cool of fall. It has been our choice site for our home group to talk about God during our time together.

We did have a missionary stay with us during the week before Conference.

Carol has ministered in Belgium since 1989. She now leads the House of Prayer for All Nations-Brussels, praying for the city, nation and the European Union institutions. She prays weekly in the European Parliament. Carol is a member of a prophetic intercession team praying for Belgium. She plays an active role in an international intercession team (RTC), praying on-site internationally twice a year. She was trained in and taught the "Living Waters – Healing for the Sexually and Relationally Broken" course, Somehow my knee has become much worse, forcing us to cancel travel plans. For only the second time in 26 years I missed the FIRE Missions Conference. The conference is broadcast online so I was able to watch from home.

and continues to pray for individuals through her local church, Vineyard Brussels. Carol meets with believers to encourage, pray with and mentor as well.

Pray for Remnant's Rest

My knee is so much worse. We are struggling to find a surgeon who will replace my knee given my circumstance. I am not able to walk very well or far, so exercise is difficult, and my serious digestive issues interfere with weight loss.

We are thankful that the garage is finished. The builder finally came back to fix the sidewalk that surrounds the building. We were pleased to see that the recent 3" of rain did not back flow into the garage!

We thank God for each one of you, your prayers and your support as we complete the guest area of our home and welcome ministers for a time of renewal and refreshing.