

REMNANT'S REST

Mark 1:35

Jesus got up, left the house and went off to a solitary place, where he prayed.

We are home from an unplanned trip to Wisconsin.

My Uncle Greg was just here this past November and March. He and Brandon built a deck off the kitchen door entrance of our house with some assistance from the rest of us.

Greg passed away suddenly with blood clots that seem to have appeared out of nowhere and quickly diminished his health. In minutes, rather than returning home from the hospital, he was in eternity with Jesus.

My cousin Chandler and I spoke at his funeral. We recounted personality quirks and joy he brought to the lives of the family, church and community.

He was active in the Boy Scouts of America for decades after his sons achieved Eagle Scout. He was still camping and transporting kids and supplies. His influence extended to both the boys and the other leaders.

He was a church board member and active in the Royal Rangers, a Boy Scout-like ministry of the church

We will miss his humor and wisdom in our lives. When we needed guidance in areas where he was knowledgeable we sought his advice.

Stephanie feels like she has lost another father-figure with the passing of my father, her father, and now Uncle Greg. Grief hits her in waves and so does the laughter when she remembers him.

The time we spent in Wisconsin in relationship with family and long-time friends was needed for the healing process. What surprised us is how much of a celebration it felt like. Greg brought joy to many and hundreds came to celebrate his life.

Pray for Remnant's Rest

My knee pain is being-dulled by medication. Now I must not overdo it and learn the limits.

Ministers meeting.

Young man seeking truth.

We thank God for each one of you, your prayers and your support as we complete the guest area of our home and welcome ministers for a time of renewal and refreshing.
