

Focusing on the Prophetic and Prayer

"The mind of a man plans his way but the Lord directs his steps."

August 2025

Dear Friends and Partners,

Guy went to be with the Lord last August 1st. Moving into a new home has given me something on which to focus besides my loss. It has been difficult, but the time has seemed to pass quickly. Even though I had downsized to a smaller home, sold the majority of my furniture, and gave away a lot of my household items, trying to fit everything else into my new house took a while.

March: On the 5th, I flew to Seattle for a Conference at Eden Church. March 29th, I was honored to be invited to a dinner in Birmingham, Alabama, to celebrate 20 years since the founding of the Justice Action Group (JAG). The President and founder, Phillip L. Jauregui, is an expert in constitutional law, judicial policy, and non-profit coalition building. JAG sponsors prayer opportunities and teaching events and publishes research summaries on judicial nominees.

In May, I flew back to Seattle for a semi-annual Conference sponsored by Renaissance Coalition, an organization founded by John G Lake to ordain and encourage ministers.

In early June, I drove to Washington DC for an Intercessors For America Insight and Intercession event. A group of approximately 20 of us gathered at the Conservative Partnership Institute (CPI) building close to the Library of Congress. The presence of the Spirit during the teaching and prayers was tangible. We also visited the Public Gallery in the House Chamber while a hearing was in progress regarding control of derivatives of fentanyl. This event was the week of the 250-year anniversary of the creation of the US Army. Roads were blocked and there were almost no taxis or Ubers available. As I walked back to my hotel, I passed thousands of the flags by the Mall in front of the Capitol.

Later in June, I drove with a friend, Bobbye Jo Smith, to DC to take part in a Faith and Freedom Coalition Event. We spent one afternoon in a meeting room in the Cannon Office building and listened to dozens of speakers who serve in our government, including Vice President Vance. The speakers were continuously scheduled for 20-minute slots with no breaks. When people in the building learned about the speakers scheduled, it became literally standing room only. Afterward, I joined a spontaneous tour of the Capitol graciously led by Charlotte Representative, Mark Harris. Since it was after hours, we were allowed to sit on the House Chamber floor where I had watched the hearing on fentanyl a few weeks before.

I hope to attend three more events this October. I am so blessed by your partnership, prayers, and support you demonstrate towards me.

Blessings and love,

Sarah
