PREACHER'S CORNER.....

Welcome to the fall church family. We have a lot going on in November as every month. We are excited that the South Carolina Baptist Convention is coming to the upstate on the 10th and 11th. The annual meeting will be held at First Baptist Church in Taylors. We encourage anyone interested in becoming a messenger to contact the Church Office. We are also looking forward to our Thanksgiving revival with Friendship Baptist Church on the 16th at 6 PM. We will have a joint choir with Friendship and Pastor Alan Bagwell will be sharing the word. We are also looking forward to the Swamp Rabbits' Faith and Family game on November 15th. Also, do not forget on the 23rd, we will celebrate our Thanksgiving meal after service. That day there will be one worship at 10:30 followed by our meal. As the leaves fall and there's a nip in the air, I'm reminded what the Bible has to say about itself in Isaiah 40:8 " the grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God stands forever." Falling leaves remind us that winter is on the way with cooler temperatures, and frost in the air, but no matter what the temperature does, we can always trust God and his word.

Pastor Ben
