

Piano Lessons At The Alive Christians School of Music

The Alive Christians Music School is the school that you'll want to be a part of as a Christian if you desire to glorify God in music and song.

The School, founded by Apostle Quinson Thomas, is for believers all around the world to grow in their musical abilities. Fostering an environment for musical excellence on the piano, Quinson, the founder, has acquired eight distinctions in music from the Royal Schools of Music, many other musical accolades, and over 20 years of teaching experience. This allows him to teach with the student in mind, focusing not just on the theory and practical work, but also on the strengths and weaknesses of each student. Each lesson and teaching plan is based on your unique strengths and giftings.

All of the School's lessons are online.

This allows you to join your class from the comfort of your own home.

Online Classes Are Very Effective

Lots of people think sometimes that the online lessons aren't as effective, but they actually are. They're very effective.

The only thing that you wouldn't have is a teacher being able to touch your hand, basically. But all the skills you'd need to learn you'll be able to develop in the online setting, because once we get things set up, your camera will be focused on your fingers, so that your finger placement, posture and everything can be seen by your teacher.

The school has lessons in a variety of places, including New York, Tampa, Miami, Atlanta, Phoenix, Arizona, and many other locations. If you'd like to be a part of The Alive Christians School of Music so that you can learn how to play the piano and play it very well, just as the founder does, then you should sign up for a free lesson to get started today.
