A person wearing a dark hoodie and pants is standing in a field of dry, brown grass. They are holding a book in their hands. The background is a vast field of similar dry grass, extending to the horizon. The lighting is soft, suggesting an overcast day or late afternoon. The overall mood is quiet and contemplative.

The Gospel of the Kingdom is simple enough for a child to receive it (Matthew 19:14) and prodigious enough to heal people groups and overcome evil (Revelation 22:2).

A couple is shown from the waist down, holding hands in a field of tall, dry grass. The man is on the left, wearing dark pants and shoes, and the woman is on the right, wearing dark pants and shoes. The background is a soft-focus field of tall grass under a warm, golden light. The text is overlaid in white, with some words in bold.

“No longer will they call you Deserted, or name your land Desolate. But you will be called Hephzibah, and your land Beulah for the Lord will take delight in you, and your land will be married.”

Isaiah 62:4

“How can He [Jesus] say...”

- from God (Eph 1:4, Ps 139)

- to God (2 Cor 5:8, 2 Tim 4:8, Rev 20:11-15)

- Authority (Mt 28:18, Eph 1:21, 3:10)

EPISODE 17: CONFLICT AND BEAUTY OF HUMAN RELATIONSHIPS - WHAT IS CONFRONTATION? - PART 3

Many of us have a family recipe(s) that contains a secret ingredient and/or a secret process that enables the recipe to be special, and passed down the family tree, and be the family favorite. When it comes to having the mind of relationships we want, listening is the secret ingredient. In this podcast, Lance shares with us four ways to help us have a better experience in times of conflict and confrontation.

Four Areas to Grow in Our Talking like Jesus:

1. Grow in loving — Value people.
2. Grow in learning — Make yourself valuable.
3. Grow in listening — Know what others value.
4. Grow in leading — Say what God values.
