

Simple Faith.

Let's declare together:

This is God's word,

It gives us life,

We believe it.

"I wish I had the courage to live a life true to myself, not the life others expected of me."

From "The Top 5 Regrets of the Dying"

Being God's beloved unlocks the doorway to a purposeful life, impactful contributions, and to serving as key instruments for solutions.

The undeniable reality is that we are the instruments for creating problems. Therefore, we need to be the instruments for providing solutions. We hold the keys to both the chaos and the cure.

(Matthew 16:19, 18:18; John 20:23)

“Beloved, while I was making every effort...”

Jude 3

John 1:12 (NIV), "Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God."

Romans 8:16 (NIV), "The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children."

This is important because when living as God's children and making a positive impact, the enemy will try to hinder us by using lies, fears, and our past experiences.

Psalm 127:4 (NLT), "Children born to a young man are like arrows in a warrior's hands."

Certainty #1: God gives us gifts.

1 Peter 4:10

Romans 12:6

"God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve one another."

1 Peter 4:10 NLT

We can't control the brokenness of the world, but we can choose to be bright lights and hope reformers, stitching kindness into the torn fabric of humanity. Our acts of love and compassion can mend the world's fractures.

Broken ones have become burning ones.

Certainty #2: God develops our sensitivity to Him and others.

Romans 8:14

Sensitivity to God and others resists the hurried pace of the anxious and stressed, pausing for the one with a listening ear, a loving heart, and a comforting touch.

Certainty #3: God requires our availability,
Romans 12:1

The arrow's nock means - "I must have alignment before assignment."

Certainty #4: God builds our character.

Matthew 7:20

John 15:5

Mark 9:23

Sonship refers to the truth of believers living as adopted children of God through faith in Jesus Christ. It signifies a deep, intimate relationship with God, where believers understand their identity as God's beloved children and live in the freedom and love that comes from being in His family.

God is most glorified when we are most satisfied in Him.
