HOLY SPIRIT IN AN
APOSTOLIC FAMILY - part 4

Apostolic Leadership Culture, aka Apostolic Family, is an environment where beliefs, values, behaviors and actions are characteristic of a community of people who are being mobilized towards positive change and transformation.

A photograph of a church service. The foreground shows a large, diverse congregation of people seated in pews, many with their hands raised in prayer. The stage is elevated and covered with a red carpet. On the stage, there are several people, including a man in a white shirt who appears to be speaking or singing. A large screen at the back of the stage displays a logo and some text. The lighting is warm and focused on the stage.

The Holy Spirit, given to us by God, gives us love and defines what it should look like.

A photograph of a church service. A large, diverse congregation is seated in the foreground, facing a stage. On the stage, a band is performing, and a large screen displays a logo and text. The scene is lit with warm, golden light. A semi-transparent white box with rounded corners is overlaid on the center of the image, containing the text "Love looks like something." in a bold, black, sans-serif font.
