HOLY SPIRIT IN AN
APOSTOLIC FAMILY - Part 3

A photograph of a church service. A large, diverse congregation is seated in the foreground, facing a stage. The stage is covered with a red carpet and features a large screen displaying a logo and text. A person is visible on the stage, possibly a minister or musician. The lighting is warm and focused on the stage area.

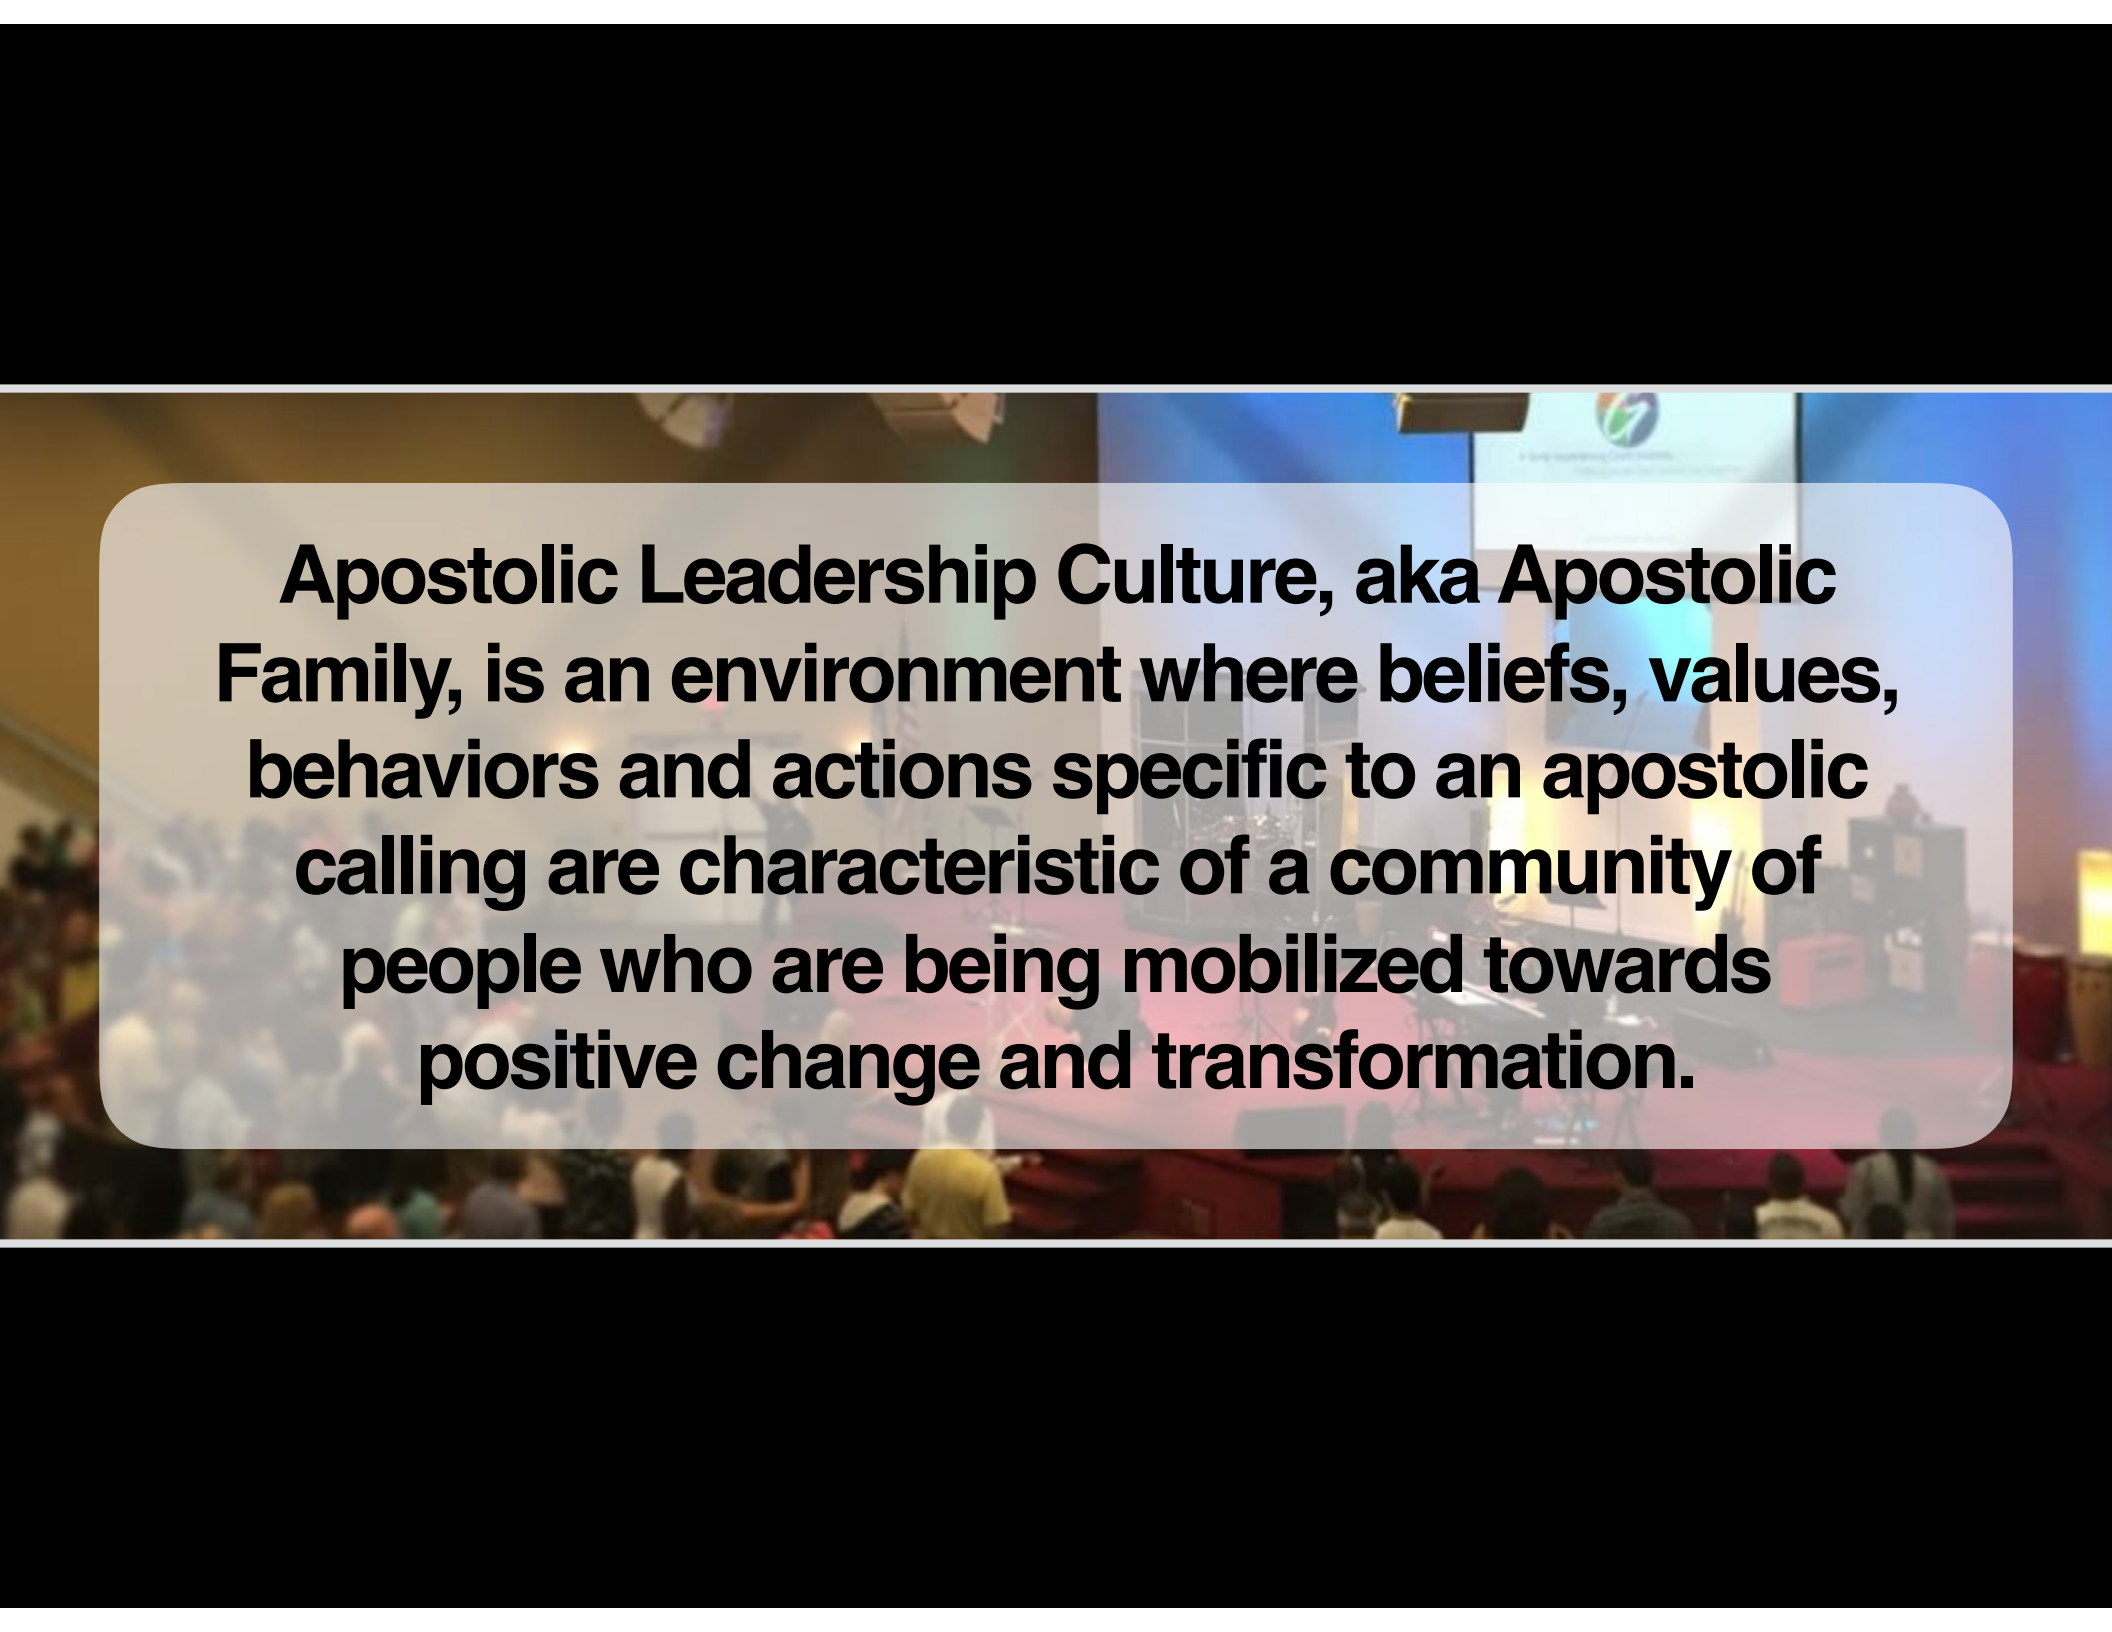

Our highest calling in life is to host the presence of God; to love Him with all that we are.

A photograph of a church service. The foreground shows a large, diverse congregation of people seated in pews, many with their hands raised in worship. The stage is elevated and covered with a red carpet. On the stage, there are several musicians and a large screen displaying a logo and text. The lighting is warm and focused on the stage.

In a love relationship like this, we are awakened to the awesome privilege of partnering with God, as much loved children of God.
