

Let's Keep It Moving

A c t s 2 8 : 1 7 - 3 3

Pastor Jered Murphy

IF we move and HOW we move are critical facets of life.

Movement is important.

Four observations for moving in the direction we want:

The background features a series of glowing, horizontal streaks in shades of red, orange, and yellow, creating a sense of motion and energy. These streaks are set against a solid black background, which makes the colors stand out prominently. The overall effect is reminiscent of light trails or data visualization.

Observation 1:

It's a perfect time for important conversations.

A c t s 2 8 : 1 7 - 2 2

Having important conversations can be a breeding ground for spiritual breakthrough.

The background features a dark, almost black, gradient. In the lower half, there are numerous horizontal, wavy lines of light in shades of red, orange, and yellow, creating a sense of motion and energy. These lines appear to originate from the right side and fan out towards the left, with some lines being thicker and brighter than others.

Observation 2:

There's still time to persuade others to Jesus.

A c t s 2 8 : 2 3 - 2 4

Our Kingdom calling as ambassadors is not dependent upon our circumstances.

Observation 3:
Use this time to declare war on strongholds.

A c t s 2 8 : 2 5 - 2 8

We fight from a place of victory.

Observation 4:

Unique times present unique opportunities.

A c t s 2 8 : 3 0 - 3 1

Impact is not determined by context.

An abstract graphic consisting of numerous thin, overlapping lines in shades of red and white. These lines originate from the right edge of the text and fan out towards the right side of the image, creating a sense of motion and depth against the black background.

The Holy Spirit has plans for new growth, insight, and empowerment during this time of quarantine.

The background features a series of dynamic, glowing streaks in shades of red, orange, and white, radiating from the center and extending towards the right edge. These streaks create a sense of movement and energy against the solid black background.

Only JESUS makes movement and all things possible.
