

QUOTES from “Do You Believe?” by Paul David Tripp

“Doctrine is something you live even in the smallest and most mundane moments of your life. ...The purpose [of doctrine] is not information but transformation.”

“The existence, inspiration, authority, and trustworthiness of Scripture is the doctrinal foundation upon which every other doctrine stands.”

THINK ABOUT

What we have because of Scripture

- Specific knowledge of God
- Honest assessment of ourselves
- The clear plan of salvation

What we lack without it

- Truth
- Morality
- Wisdom
- Hope

TALK ABOUT

- What excites you most about reading the Bible?
- What do you find most difficult about reading the Bible?
- What objections have you heard from people who don't believe the Bible? How do you answer them?
- If someone could watch a month of your life, what would he or she conclude about the place of God's word in your life?
- Who or what would you consider your most esteemed, sought-after, and influential teacher?
