WHAT IN THE WORLD IS GOING ON?

3 Things Not to be Unaware Of

There are 3 things that God says He does not want us to be ignorant (unaware) of:

1. His working with the Nation of Israel - (Romans 11)
2. Spiritual Gifts - (1 Corinthians 12)
3. His Second Coming (which means Last Days, for that is when He comes, in the Last Days of earth) - (1 Thessalonians 4)

- Romans 11:25–26 (NKJV) ⁵ For I do not desire, brethren, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be wise in your own opinion, that blindness in part has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. ²⁶ And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written: “The Deliverer will come out of Zion, And He will turn away ungodliness from Jacob;
- 1 Corinthians 12:1 (NKJV) ¹ Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be ignorant:
- 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18 (NKJV) ¹³ But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, lest you sorrow as others who have no hope. ¹⁴ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus. ¹⁵ For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep. ¹⁶ For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷ Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. ¹⁸ Therefore comfort one another with these words.

Peace – Comfort one another that Jesus is Coming for His Bride.

1 Thessalonians 4:16–18 (NKJV) ¹⁶ For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷ Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. ¹⁸ Therefore comfort one another with these words.

(Revelation 3:10 NKJV) "Because you have kept My command to persevere, I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth.

Priority – What is really important based on all these things?

Matthew 6:33 (NKJV) ³³ But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.

Purity – How then should we live based on these things.

1 John 3:2–3 (NKJV) ² Beloved, now we are children of God; and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is. ³ And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

Proof – That this Bible is Inspired.

2 Timothy 3:16–17 (NKJV) ¹⁶ All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, ¹⁷ that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

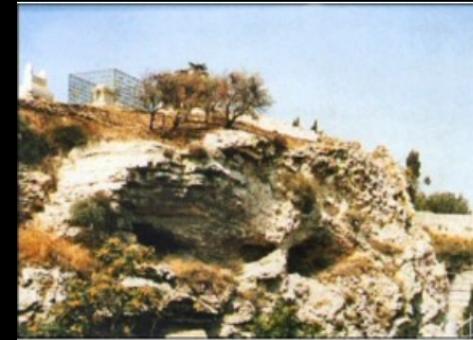

Preach – Tell the world the Good News – They need to hear it!

John 3:16–17 (NKJV) ¹⁶ For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. ¹⁷ For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

EUROPE
E.U. Moves Closer to a Joint Military Force

BRUSSELS — The European Union took an important step on Monday toward a collective defence capacity, as 22 of the 28 member countries signed on to a program of joint military investment in equipment, research and development.

The intention is to jointly develop European military abilities and to make them available for operations separately or in coordination with NATO. The effort also aims to reduce the fragmentation of European military spending and to promote cross-cut projects to reduce duplication and waste.

The White House on Monday estimated that Russia's military has suffered 100,000 casualties in the last five months in fighting in the Bakhmut region and other areas of Ukraine.

White House national security spokesperson John Kirby told reporters the figure, based on U.S. intelligence estimates, included more than 20,000 dead, half of them from the Wagner mercenary group, which includes convicts released from prison to join the fighting.

"Russia's attempt at a winter offensive in the Donbas largely through Bakhmut has failed."

India becomes Europe's largest supplier of refined fuels: Kpler

Synopsis
The reliance of Europe on Indian crude oil products has surged. This increase can be linked with the ban on Russian oil. The data also showed that Europe's refined fuel imports from India are set to surge above 360,000 barrels a day, edging just ahead of those of Saudi Arabia.

Who is able to make war with him?” ⁵ And he was given a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and he was given authority to continue for forty-two months. ⁶ Then he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, His tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven. ⁷ It was granted to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them. And authority was given him over every tribe, tongue, and nation. ⁸ All who dwell on the earth will worship him, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.

Revelation 13:11–17 (NKJV)

¹ Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb and spoke like a dragon. ¹² And he exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence, and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. ¹³ He performs great signs, so that he even makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men. ¹⁴ And he deceives those who dwell on the earth—by those signs which he was granted to do in the sight of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded by the sword and lived. ¹⁵ He was granted power to give breath to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak and cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. ¹⁶ He causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads, ¹⁷ and that no one may buy or sell except one who has the mark or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

Revelation 17:1–6 (NKJV)

¹ Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and talked with me, saying to me, “Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters, ² with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication.” ³ So he carried me away in the Spirit into the wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast which was full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. ⁴ The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication. ⁵ And on her forehead a name was written: MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH ⁶ I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I marveled with great amazement.

Bus Driver Fired For Contesting School Libraries Sexual Material

May 5th, 2023

Riggins, ID—The question of whether an Idaho public school can legally terminate an employee for expressing his opinion on matters of public concern is being put to the test in Idaho's U.S. District Court. Pacific Justice Institute (PJI) now represents Keith Markley, a school bus driver fired by the Salmon River Joint School District of Riggins, Idaho after he wrote a letter to a local newspaper regarding "sexually explicit and/or otherwise harmful materials available to minors in the school library." Objectionable material in school libraries has been an issue of significant concern across the nation in recent years, with parents, employees, communities, and legislatures debating how best to safeguard children.

After being hired by the district last year, Mr. Markley met with school superintendent Trisha Simonson and a member of the school board to express his concerns and suggest changes to the district's library materials policy. He then wrote a letter to the editor of the Idaho County Free Press in order to raise awareness of the issue. He was subsequently fired.

Mr. Markley names both the school district and Ms. Simonson in his lawsuit, which is being filed in defense of his First Amendment rights. According to PJI attorney Katherine Hartley, "For decades, writing letters to the editor of a newspaper has been deemed one of our fundamental rights to engage our fellow citizens. In fact, just such a scenario is how the Supreme Court first established speech rights for teachers and all public employees more than 50 years ago. This school district's rejection of such well-established law is alarming and must be corrected in federal court."

SAN JOSE, Calif. (KRON) — The latest ruling in a yearslong battle between Santa Clara County and Calvary Chapel in San Jose ordered the church to pay $1.2 million in administrative fines, including interest, according to a news release. The fines date back to 2020 when Santa Clara County said the church blatantly violated public health orders during the Covid-19 pandemic by continuously holding large in-door church services and not requiring face coverings or social distancing.

The church said the orders prevented it from exercising its religious freedom and violated the constitution—claim that was rejected by the judge with the courts saying, "It should appear clear to all—regardless of religious affiliation—that wearing a mask while worshiping one's god and communing with other congregants is a simple, unobtrusive, giving way to protect others while still exercising your right to religious freedom. Unfortunately, defendants repeatedly refused to model, much less, enforce this gesture."

This decision from the superior courts also comes after a federal court dismissed the church's claims against the county and left the remainder of the case to be ruled by state court.

Maryland voters will decide next year whether the right to abortion is enshrined in the state's constitution under a measure Gov. Wes Moore signed into law Wednesday.

It was one of several bills signed Wednesday that lawmakers say establish Maryland as a leader in health care access.

The constitutional amendment will be on general election ballots in November 2024. The measure is a response to the U.S. Supreme Court's decision last summer in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization to leave it to states to decide how to regulate abortion access.

Mayor Adams' Statement on Signing of Respect for Marriage Act

NEW YORK – New York City Mayor Eric Adams today released the following statement after President Joseph Biden signed into law the Respect for Marriage Act:

“Love will always win. The Respect for Marriage Act is a critical federal protection for love and marriage equality at a critically-needed moment for our LGBTQ+ community. One of my proudest moments as a legislator was voting in favor of marriage equality in New York State, and this law takes an important step to mandate recognition of same-sex marriages in all 50 states. As LGBTQ+ freedoms are under systemic attack across our society, sparking a rise in hate and violence, we can now celebrate a bipartisan achievement that protects the rights of LGBTQ+ and interracial couples. I thank President Biden and our congressional leaders, as well as every advocate and ally who has and continues to fight for our LGBTQ+ neighbors in New York City and across America. Love is love, and no government should stand in its way.”

Biden Touts the 'Profound Power of Prayer': 'Join Me in Asking for God's Continued Guidance'

Michael Foust | ChristianHeadlines.com
Contributor | Thursday, May 4, 2023

President Biden is calling on people of faith to pray for God's blessings on America, saying in his annual National Day of Prayer Proclamation that prayer "can move mountains" and has "empowered" the nation's moral movements.

Prayer has "empowered moral movements and fueled efforts to strengthen our democracy," the president said.

"It was deeply rooted in the fight to abolish slavery and the expansion of voting rights and voter access," Biden said. "And it continues to compel us to uphold our founding creed that all of us are created equal, are made in the image of God, and deserve to be treated with dignity and equality throughout our lives."

Prayer has influenced American life in multiple ways, such as by "bringing comfort to service members on the battlefield, grounding the spirits of astronauts in space, guiding the healing hands of medical professionals tending to our loved ones, and fortifying the faiths of millions of worshippers in every corner of our Nation," Biden said.

Biden said he is praying that Americans can unite and remember that there is "so much more" that "unites us than divides us."

"Today," he said, "I pray that we can see each other as we should: not as enemies but as neighbors, and not as adversaries but as fellow Americans and human beings. Only when we see ourselves in each other will justice, as scripture tells us, 'roll down like waters,' righteousness become 'a mighty stream,' and America fulfill its true promise as a land of liberty and justice for all.

"... I call upon the citizens of our Nation to give thanks, in accordance with their own faith and conscience, for our many freedoms and blessings, and I invite all people of faith to join me in asking for God's continued guidance, mercy, and protection."

Mental health experts and Christian parents are sounding the alarm about the negative impact social media is having on our younger generation. Teenagers are experiencing a mental health crisis that is likely linked to time spent on sites like TikTok, YouTube, Instagram, and more.

The CDC reports more than 44 percent of U.S. high school students surveyed reported feeling hopeless almost every day for at least two weeks in a row. More than half of teenage girls reported feeling persistently sad, a 10-year high, according to government data. At the same time, teens are spending increasing amounts of time of social media, with nearly half reporting being "almost constantly" online, according to Pew Research Center.

Daniel Amen, M.D., adult and child psychiatrist, told CBN News while the statistics are frightening, they are not surprising, considering the very nature of social media.

"It was developed by people in Silicon Valley who understand addiction, and they, (the sites), were created to be addictive," he said. Pointing to the efforts of social media company executives, Amen said, "They want more brain time because more brain time means more money."

"Facebook knows that they are leading young users to anorexia," she said, citing the company's own research that reveals their platforms can erode many aspects of a teenager's well-being. "When Facebook is asked questions directly as important as, 'How do you impact the health and safety of our children?' They choose to mislead and misdirect."

Cyber-Bullying, Doomscrolling, Body Issues

Mental health experts blame social media overuse for many of the psychological challenges kids face today. Licensed psychologist Carolyn Rubenstein, PhD, told CBN News she counsels young people who are suffering from the ill effects of this technology, as are many of her peers.

"It's definitely becoming a big, big issue that mental health clinicians are seeing," she said.

Dr. Rubenstein said too many teens feel bad about themselves compared to other people they see on social media, people who seem to be a lot happier and better looking, when in reality, they are neither.

"I think body image is one of the major places where we're starting to see some real impact," she said. "Especially with all the filtering that has been happening, and all the apps you can now use to make yourself look like a completely different person."

Cyber-bullying is another major source of teen angst.

Project 09852 'Belgorod' Special Mission Submarine

Flag of Russian Navy

KC-139 Belgorod (KS-139 "Белгород") is an OSCAR-II cruise missile submarine which has been extensively modified to launch the new Poseidon (NATO: KANYON) strategic nuclear torpedo weapon.

Additionally, it will serve as a Special Missions host submarine. It will be crewed by the Russian Navy but operated under GUGI, the secretive Main Directorate Deep Sea Research organization. In order to conduct covert special missions, it will carry a deep-diving midget submarine.

2M39 Poseidon (NATO: KANYON) Intercontinental Nuclear-Powered Nuclear-Armed Autonomous Torpedo

Belgorod will carry six 2M39 Poseidon (Посейдон) weapons, previously known in the West as 'Status-6'. These may target naval bases and coastal cities and, based on Russian MoD releases, also Carrier Battle Groups (CBGs).

Poseidon is the largest torpedo ever developed in any country. It is approximately twice the size of submarine launched ballistic missiles (SLBMs) and thirty times the size of a regular "heavyweight" torpedo.

6 x Poseidon launch tubes mounted under the casing but external to the occupied pressure hull. The exact arrangement has yet to be confirmed

UGST-M Heavyweight torpedo

Retractable diving planes

Sonar dome

The inner hull is based on the OSCAR-II Class cruise missile submarine. We can only speculate at the internal arrangement, but we can deduce that there will be four decks (5 levels)

Surface search radar

'Kora' communication mast

Communication buoy as-per BOREI Class

Klavesin2P-PM AUV

Belgorod can carry the Klavesin (Клавесин-2P-PM Harpisichord) family of Autonomous Underwater Vehicles (AUV). These probably carry side-scan sonar and other sensors and can operate down to about 2,000m (6,000ft)

Hangar

Hull insert. Approximately 20 m (65 ft) long

Access trunk

Pr.18270 Bester DSRV
A single Deep-Submergence Rescue Vehicle (DSRV) can be carried on a cradle and connected by an access trunk.

Shelf (ШЕЛЬФ) ATGU

The ATGU (Automated Installation of the nuclear turbine generator) will be used to power underwater sensor network known as HARMONY

Carried on back in place of DSRV. Lifted into place by the Deep-Diving midget submarine

Access hatch

Remodeled upper rudder

Towed sonar array

Twin screws

Enlarged lower rudders (two)

Extra thrusters to allow 'hovering'

Water scoops for cooling

Communications array (Tbc)

Two nuclear reactors. Likely OK-650V pressurized water reactors (PWR)

Losharik Midget Submarine

The Project 10831 submarine is known as Losharik (Лощарик), after a cartoon horse made of balls strung together. This is in reference to its spherical internal hulls.

On July 1st 2019 the submarine suffered a serious fire while operating from another host submarine, BS-64 Podmoskovye. 14 hydronauts died. The submarine is expected to return to service.

PALTUS Midget Submarine

The Project 18511 midget submarine is older and smaller than Losharik but can perform similar tasks.

GUGI badge

AGS Deep-Diving Midget Submarines

The Belgorod will carry a nuclear-powered Deep Submergence midget sub, termed a deep nuclear station (AGS in Russian). They are operated by the Russian Navy for the Main Directorate of Deep-Sea Research (GUGI) and crewed by elite 'hydronauts'.

These submarines dock with the underside of Belgorod and are used to place the ATGU and other payloads on to the sea floor down to about 1,000m (3,000ft). The 70m long 'Losharik' can be carried, or the 55m long PALTUS

Prophetic Anticipation Builds: Unblemished Red Heifers for Temple Ceremony Soon Come of Age

Last September, five red heifers arrived in Israel from the U.S. amid great fanfare because some Jews and Gentiles believe red heifers are a key element leading to the building of the Third Jewish Temple. Anticipation has been building as the clock counts down toward a key milestone.

The book of Numbers explains that ashes of the red heifer are used to purify priests for their service in the Temple:

"Now, the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, 'This is the ordinance of the law which the Lord has commanded, saying: Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring you a red heifer without blemish, in which there is no defect and on which a yoke has never come. You shall give it to Eleazar the priest, that he may take it outside the camp, and it shall be slaughtered before him ... its offal shall be burned ... for the water of purification; it is for purifying from sin.'" (Numbers 19:1-5)

These red heifers are now between 1½ and 2 years old. To replicate the ceremony mentioned in the Bible, they need to be at least 3 years old. And within that time span, they cannot have a blemish or anything that would disqualify them for the ceremony, even one white or black hair.

According to those working on the project, the ceremony of the red heifer needs to be performed on the Mount of Olives, and in a

US NEARING DIGITAL IDENTITY FOR ALL AMERICANS

Sunday, April 30, 2023 | Tag Cloud

The controversial bill behind the initiative, known as the “Improving Digital Identity Act of 2023,” already passed the U.S. Senate Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee.

It has now been introduced to the entire U.S. Senate for debate, and critics fear the bill will be adopted soon.

Experts say some of the most intrusive aspects of the proposed technologies would allow governments and partnering agencies to track user behaviors across time and to develop “complex profiles of their identities.”

These behaviors are then “rewarded” or “punished” by the governments, like the social credit system used in Communist-run China, critics say.

Yet Senators Kyrsten Sinema, an Independent from Arizona, and Cynthia Lummis, a Republican from Wyoming, introduced the bill anyway, saying it would improve security.

Their legislation calls for “an interagency task force” to head a combined public-private collaboration, which will “help all citizens more easily and securely engage in transactions online” and “prove who they are online.”

‘SECURE WAY’

The bill also claims that the “Lack of an easy, affordable, reliable, and secure way for organizations, businesses, and government agencies to identify whether an individual is who they claim to be online creates an attack vector that is widely exploited by adversaries in cyberspace and precludes many high-value transactions from being available online.”

The law notes that “Incidents of identity theft and identity fraud continue to rise in the United States, where more than 293,000,000 people were impacted by data breaches in 2021.”

Additionally, “Since 2017, losses

Additionally, “Since 2017, losses resulting from identity fraud have increased by 333 percent, and, in 2020, those losses totaled $56,000,000,000,” according to the bill text.

The proposed introduction of digital identity comes shortly after European Union’s legislature agreed on similar measures.

The European Parliament voted last month, with a majority of 418 votes to 103, for “a new digital identity framework” to provide EU citizens with digital access to critical public services across EU borders.

Yet in published remarks, political commentator James Melville criticized the proposed mobile applications, or apps, saying that it would be better for citizens to monitor governments.

“Instead of a digital ID app that allows governments to snoop on us, what about having a digital ID app that allows us to track government spending, MPs’ expenses, second jobs, and who they

“Instead of a digital ID app that allows governments to snoop on us, what about having a digital ID app that allows us to track government spending, MPs’ expenses, second jobs, and who they meet with?” he wondered.

“Because they work for us rather than us working for them,” Melville wrote on social networking site Twitter.

It was Mohammed Shia Al Sudani's first foreign trip since he took office last month. The king received him at the airport, underlying the importance the two countries have placed on improving ties.

King Abdullah told Mr Al Sudani during talks between the two men that he wished for the Iraqi Prime Minister "to succeed in his missions", the official Jordanian news agency said.

¹⁶ And they gathered them together to the place called in Hebrew, Armageddon.

Revelation 19:17–21 (NKJV)

¹⁷ Then I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the midst of heaven, “Come and gather together for the supper of the great God, ¹⁸ that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all people, free and slave, both small and great.” ¹⁹ And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who sat on the horse and against His army. ²⁰ Then the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who worked signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were cast alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone. ²¹ And the rest were killed with the sword which proceeded from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse. And all the birds were filled with their flesh.

13.) The Battle of Armageddon

Revelation 9:13–16 (NKJV)

¹³ Then the sixth angel sounded: And I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, ¹⁴ saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, “Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates.” ¹⁵ So the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released to kill a third of mankind. ¹⁶ Now the number of the army of the horsemen was two hundred million; I heard the number of them.

Revelation 16:12 (NKJV)

¹² Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, so that the way of the kings from the east might be prepared.

Daniel 11:40–45 (NKJV)

⁴⁰ “At the time of the end the king of the South shall attack him; and the king of the North shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter the countries, overwhelm them, and pass through. ⁴¹ He shall also enter the Glorious Land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall escape from his hand: Edom, Moab, and the prominent people of Ammon. ⁴² He shall stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape. ⁴³ He shall have power over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; also the Libyans and Ethiopians shall follow at his heels. ⁴⁴ But news from the east and the north shall trouble him; therefore he shall go out with great fury to destroy and annihilate many. ⁴⁵ And he shall plant the tents of his palace between the seas and the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and no one will help him.

At Nellis Air Force Base in Nevada on August 1, 2008, SunPower Corporation has built North America's largest solar farm, where over 72,000 solar panels now supply upwards of 14 megawatts of clean electricity to meet about 25 percent of the base's needs and save a million dollars annually. The Pentagon may seem an unlikely promoter of alternative energy, but the biggest consumer of oil in the United States is looking at ways to become just that by partnering with private firms. WASHINGTON — The Defense Department, the world's largest institutional greenhouse gas emitter, is trying to reach net-zero emissions by 2050, even as it seeks to lessen its dependence on China in the renewable energy supply chain.

Republicans on Capitol Hill are pushing back against the Pentagon's climate goals by invoking China's dominance over the raw materials necessary to manufacture the electric vehicles and solar panels that the Defense Department needs to meet its emissions-reductions targets.

Based on the projections, India's population by mid-year will reach 1.4286 billion, compared to China's 1.4257 billion -- 2.9 million fewer -- according to the United Nations Population Fund's (UNFPA) "State of World Population Report" for 2023.

But the UN has been unable to determine a date this shift will take place, due to "uncertainty" about the data coming from China and India.
