

Prophecy Update 2017

WHAT IN THE WORLD IS GOING ON?

3 Things Not to be Unaware Of

- There are 3 things that God says He does not want us to be ignorant (unaware) of:
 1. His working with the Nation of Israel - (Romans 11)
 2. Spiritual Gifts - (1 Corinthians 12)
 3. His Second Coming (which means Last Days, for that is when He comes, in the Last Days of earth) - (1 Thessalonians 4)
- Romans 11:25–26 (NKJV) ⁵ For I do not desire, brethren, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be wise in your own opinion, that blindness in part has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. ²⁶ And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written: “The Deliverer will come out of Zion, And He will turn away ungodliness from Jacob;
- 1 Corinthians 12:1 (NKJV) ¹ Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be ignorant:
- 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18 (NKJV) ¹³ But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, lest you sorrow as others who have no hope. ¹⁴ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus. ¹⁵ For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep. ¹⁶ For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷ Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. ¹⁸ Therefore comfort one another with these words.

God Wants us to be Able to Understand Prophecy

Write the things which you have seen,

Revelation 1:1–20 (NKJV)

¹ The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him to show His servants—things which must shortly take place. And He sent and signified it by His angel to His servant John, ² who bore witness to the word of God, and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, to all things that he saw. ³ Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written in it; for the time is near. ⁴ John, to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from Him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne, ⁵ and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler over the kings of the earth. To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood, ⁶ and has made us kings and priests to His God and Father, to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. ⁷ Behold, He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him, even they who pierced Him. And all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of Him. Even so, Amen. ⁸ “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End,” says the Lord, “who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.” ⁹ I, John, both your brother and companion in the tribulation and kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was on the island that is called Patmos for the word of God and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. ¹⁰ I was in the Spirit on the Lord’s Day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, as of a trumpet, ¹¹ saying, “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last,” and, “What you see, write in a book and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia: to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamos, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.” ¹² Then I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And having turned I saw seven golden lampstands, ¹³ and in the midst of the seven lampstands One like the Son of Man, clothed with a garment down to the feet and girded about the chest with a golden band. ¹⁴ His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and His eyes like a flame of fire; ¹⁵ His feet were like fine brass, as if refined in a furnace, and His voice as the sound of many waters; ¹⁶ He had in His right hand seven stars, out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword, and His countenance was like the sun shining in its strength. ¹⁷ And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead. But He laid His right hand on me, saying to me, “Do not be afraid; I am the First and the Last. ¹⁸ I am He who lives, and was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore. Amen. And I have the keys of Hades and of Death. ¹⁹ Write the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will take place after this. ²⁰ The mystery of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands which you saw are the seven churches.

and the things which will take place after this (Overview)

If you want to know what time it is in prophecy, just look at what is going on in Israel. Israel is the “Prophetic Clock”.

After the Church is raptured, when God takes His bride home for the 7-year Marriage Supper of the Lamb, which will be a glorious time in heaven, but a horrendous time on earth.

The central focus of the Tribulation Period is Israel, as Romans 11:25 (all of Israel will be saved), will come to it’s fulfillment. However, not before 2/3 of them will be killed (Zechariah 13:8)

Non-Jewish people can still get saved in the Tribulation, but they will live not just in horrible earthly conditions (such as wars, famines, natural disasters), but they will be hunted down, persecuted, and killed for this faith.

So after the Church is raptured, Israel becomes the main and central figure.

So in the Last Days Israel has to be a sovereign nation again.

As always they will be under continual attack and there will be nations bent on their destruction. But, after all those who have tried and failed, there will come a world leader who will do what no one else has been able to do and that is broker a peace agreement between Israel and her enemies. That peace agreement will be a 7 year agreement, and it will mark the beginning of the 7 year Tribulation.

This man will come out of the Revived Roman Empire (modern day Europe), and he will be the Anti-Christ (which means instead of Christ). He will be under the influence and inspiration of the Devil, and eventually be filled and possessed by the Devil.

The world will love him and follow him, for the world will be in such a mess the whole world will be desperate for someone to fix the mess.

The world will be filled with disasters (earthquakes, famines, droughts, etc) after disaster, that natural disasters will be natural, they will seem commonplace. And....., the world will be filled with wars and violence like no other time on earth. Wars and violence will be commonplace. The world will be desperate for a leader to fix it all, and the Anti-Christ will come on the scene and seem to be the man to do it, and the world will fall for him and follow him.

He will seek to establish a one-world government (with him as the head), and there will be a one world religion, that will be excluded of the One True God Jesus Christ. The world will want a religion, but not one that is so-called “narrow”, but one that has no rules, no morality, they can do anything their flesh desires, and no one will say that is wrong or immoral. If you do, such as the Christians who get saved at that time, they will be killed, no doubt because the followings and teaching of Jesus Christ will be considered hate speech, and “too narrow”.

But God will always be sending out His Light and His Love, calling men everywhere to repent and come to a saving knowledge and relationships with Him. He will start a work in the Nation of Israel, as many will begin to see and know Jesus is the promised Messiah (the 144,000 spoken of in Revelation). God will have 2 witnesses who will preach the True Word of God for 3.5 years in Jerusalem. A revival among the Jewish people will begin and grow stronger and stronger during this period.

The Anti-Christ will kill these two witness, and all the world will see it. The world will celebrate it, they will exchange gifts and have a party, for that is how bad they will hate the Word of God and the moral law of it. But after 3 days of laying dead in the street of Jerusalem, they will be resurrected and ascend into heaven for the whole world to see.

Somewhere in this period Russia and her allies (Iran, Turkey, Libya, and a few others) will come to attack and destroy Israel, but God will supernaturally protect Israel and we are told then all of Israel will know the Lord (Ezekiel 38-39). Exactly when this happens is hard to know, but I lean towards it happens right around the Mid-Tribulation point because all Israel will know Jesus is the Lord, will follow him, and the Anti-Christ will go crazy because of it.

For, at the Mid-Tribulation point (regardless when Magog Invasion happens) the Anti-Christ will go into the rebuilt Temple in Jerusalem and declare himself to be god, will desecrate the Temple by making an animal sacrifice upon the altar in the Temple. He will seek to destroy Israel but God is going to supernaturally tuck Israel away and protect her for the last 3.5 years of the Tribulation. The Anti-christ if he didn’t already hate the Christians, will turn his wrath upon the believers with all out open war and hatred upon believers, hunting them down and killing them.

Wars and the consequences of war will take its toll on the earth, and the Anti-Christ will force every man, woman, and child to take “the mark” (to which we call the Mark of the Beast). It will be a mark that identifies allegiance to the Beast Anti-christ, and if a person doesn’t take the mark they cannot buy/sell in the world’s cashless society, and therefore they cannot buy food. And IF, a person takes the mark, pledges their allegiance to the anti-christ, that is the blasphemy of the Holy Spirit, and the person will be eternally damned to hell upon death. NOTE: nobody will be duped, deceived, fooled into taking the mark, they will willingly and knowingly do so because they are choosing the Anti-Christ (Beast-Devil) over Jesus Christ.

Where is America during all this prophecy? We don’t know, there appears to be no mention of America in the Last days.

The Last 3.5 years of the Tribulation is known as the Great Tribulation, and will make the first 3.5 years (which were horrendous) pale in comparison to all the death and destruction in the last 3.5 years.

The Anti-Christ will hold on to his empire by force. He will set up his main headquarters in Iraq, in Babylon. Babylon will become an economic and political center for the whole world. But it will be utterly destroyed, it appears to get nuked. The whole world will look on in horror, for the ever fragile economic system will be given a final death blow.

In the last-last days of the Tribulation period, the other world empires will have lost their love affair for the Anti-christ, and will come to wage war against him. They will meet in the Valley of Meggido there in Israel to do war. And it will be during their battle, that Jesus Christ with His Army will come to establish His Kingdom on earth. The hatred that these armies have for each other will be nothing compared to their hatred for Christ, and they will unite forces to fight Jesus, but in a breath, they will be consumed.

And then, begins the Millennial (1,000 years) Kingdom, where Jesus and His Saints (all who received Him as Lord and Savior), will rule and reign on this earth.

Israel is the size of New Jersey

The whole Nation could fit into Lake Michigan — (7 Times!)

There are 6.5 million Israeli people in Israel. (most followers of Judaism, call themselves Jews (Jewish)).

There are 300 million Arab people in the Middle East (most followers of Islam.)

There are 3 million Palestinians in Israel (most followers of Islam)

Muslim Nations in Middle-East have land area close to size of the United States
- but will not allow Palestinian brethren into their countries - Why is that?

From the Koran (the Muslim's holy book of Islam)

O Believers! take not the Jews or Christians as friends. They are but one another's friends. If any one of you taketh them for his friends, he surely is one of them! God will not guide the evil doers. (Sura 5:51)

Infidels now are they who say, "God is the Messiah, Son of Mary;" for the Messiah said, "O children of Israel! worship God, my Lord and your Lord." Whoever shall join other gods with God, God shall forbid him the Garden, and his abode shall be the Fire; and the wicked shall have no helpers. They surely are Infidels who say, "God is the third of three:" for there is no God but one God: and if they refrain not from what they say, a grievous chastisement shall light on such of them as are Infidels.

(Sura 5:75)

And when the sacred months are passed, kill those who join other gods with God wherever ye shall find them; and seize them, besiege them, and lay wait for them with every kind of ambush: but if they shall convert, and observe prayer, and pay the obligatory alms, then let them go their way, for God is Gracious, Merciful.

(Sura 9:5)

So make war on them: By your hands will God chastise them, and will put them to shame, and will give you victory over them, and will heal the bosoms of a people who believe;

(Sura 9:13)

Historical Writings - The Roman emperor Hadrian reigned from 117-138 CE. He rebuilt the ruins of Jerusalem and changed the name of the city to Aelia Capitolina (after his own family name Aelia and an idol of his). After the Jewish revolt under Bar Kochba, which lasted more than 2 years and cost the Romans and Jews enormous casualties, Hadrian forbade Jews to set foot there. Jews continued to live in the Holy Land in places such as Yavneh, Tiberias, Acco and Sephorus. Hadrian also changed the name of the land from Judea to Palestine, after the ancient people called the Philistines, who were the Jews' main enemy in the time of King David. There were no longer any Philistines in Hadrian's time but his purpose in changing the name was not to be historically accurate, but to disconnect the land from the Jews in the public memory and discourage them from ever mounting another rebellion.

The Palestinians themselves will claim a right to the the Land by saying a Palestinian is a descendant of a Philistine, which there is no one who can trace to a Philistine (many to an Egyptian or Persian, but not Philistine). Even if could, the command of God was to drive the Philistines out of the Land. So calling self a Philistine does not give right to Land.

Joshua 13:1–7 (NKJV)¹ Now Joshua was old, advanced in years. And the Lord said to him: “You are old, advanced in years, and there remains very much land yet to be possessed. ² This is the land that yet remains: all the territory of the Philistines and all that of the Geshurites, ³ from Sihor, which is east of Egypt, as far as the border of Ekron northward (which is counted as Canaanite); the five lords of the Philistines—the Gazites, the Ashdodites, the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avites; ⁴ from the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians as far as Aphek, to the border of the Amorites; ⁵ the land of the Gebalites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, from Baal Gad below Mount Hermon as far as the entrance to Hamath; ⁶ all the inhabitants of the mountains from Lebanon as far as the Brook Misrephoth, and all the Sidonians—they I will drive out from before the children of Israel; only divide it by lot to Israel as an inheritance, as I have commanded you. ⁷ Now therefore, divide this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and half the tribe of Manasseh.”

UNITED NATIONS — A lopsided majority of United Nations members rebuked the United States on Thursday, denouncing its decision to recognize Jerusalem as Israel's capital and ignoring President Trump's threats to retaliate by cutting aid to countries voting against it.

In a collective act of defiance toward Washington, the United Nations General Assembly voted 128 to 9, with 35 abstentions, for a resolution demanding that the United States rescind its Dec. 6 declaration on Jerusalem, the contested holy city.

Dreams and Visions of Jesus Are Fueling the Explosive Growth of Christianity in Muslim Nations Worldwide

9:56 AM EST 3/16/2017 | MICHAEL SNYDER

Millions of Muslims all over the world are giving their lives to Jesus Christ, and in many instances, this is happening because of dreams, visions and other supernatural encounters. (Public Domain)

Millions of Muslims all over the world are giving their lives to Jesus Christ, and in many instances, this is happening because of dreams, visions and other supernatural encounters.

Recently I have been writing a lot about the decline of Christianity in America and about the judgment that is about to hit our churches. Fortunately, the decaying state of the church in the United States is only a small part of the overall story. In other areas of the globe, Christianity is experiencing absolutely explosive growth even in the midst of horrendous persecution. This is particularly true in Islamic nations, where we are seeing things happen that could have come straight out of the Book of Acts.

All over the planet, Jesus is personally visiting Muslims in supernatural ways, and this has resulted in an enormous wave of conversions. Earlier today, I ran across an article about a family of Syrian refugees who converted to Christianity while living in Lebanon, and it all happened because of a dream:

Thousands of Muslims reportedly turning to Christ in Middle East

By ChristianPost.com - Published January 11, 2017

Voice Of the Martyrs Canada, which supports Christian radio broadcasts in the region, told BosNewsLife that despite the mass exodus of Christians from Iraq and Syria due to terrorism, persecution, and war, scores of Muslims are making the decision to embrace Christianity.

FRANKLIN GRAHAM, SAEED ABEDINI PUSH FOR RELEASE OF PASTOR IMPRISONED IN TURKEY

"There are thousands upon thousands coming to Christ," VOMC revealed. "We are in regular contact with our FM stations in Iraq and have talked with many people who have family in the Middle East."

"Some of our Middle Eastern broadcasters have shared testimonies [about many turning to Christ] with us, which they hear directly from listeners when visiting there ..."

In Iran, Christian house churches are regularly targeted and shut down by the nation's Islamic government. Despite this persecution, mission group Elam Ministries revealed that Christians have been growing in terms of numbers, and today estimates suggest there are 360,000 believers in Iran – up from only 500 in 1979.

E.U. Moves Closer to a Joint Military Force

BRUSSELS — The European Union took an important step on Monday toward a collaborative defense effort, as 19 of its 28 member countries signed on to a program of joint military investment in equipment, research and development.

The intention is to jointly develop European military abilities and to make them available for export on a separate or in coordination with NATO. The effort also aims to reduce the fragmentation of European military spending and to promote more joint projects to reduce duplication and waste.

Worldwide Surge In 'Great' Earthquakes Seen In Past 10 Years

By LISA GRAYBILL

The annual number of "great" earthquakes nearly tripled over the last decade, providing a reminder to Americans that amplified faults like those in the mountain West and States might be ripe for a big one.

Between 2004 and 2014, 38 earthquakes with magnitudes of 5.0 or more rattled a belt of volcanoes and hot spots. That's an increase of 25 percent over the average rate of the previous century, which saw 31 great quakes, according to a report to the annual meeting of the Geological Society of America this week in Vancouver, British Columbia.

Scientists Predict 2018 Will Be a Bad Year for Earthquakes. Here's Why

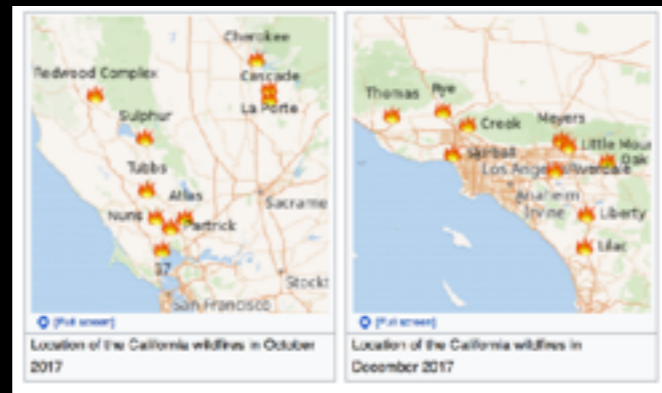

By JEFFREY KLUGER November 23, 2017

There is no natural disaster sneakier than an earthquake. Hurricanes can be predicted and tracked weeks in advance, and even tornados, monsoons and blizzards at least have seasons. But earthquakes strike entirely without warning. Now, however, a new study suggests that we may want to brace for a surge of quakes in the year ahead, and the reason for the danger is an unlikely one: the rotation of the Earth has slowed slightly.

While accurately forecasting earthquakes is impossible, a backward look through the seismic record allows geologists to detect some distinct patterns. In the new study — which was presented at the annual meeting of the Geological Society of America, in Seattle, and published in Geophysical Research Letters — geologists Roger Bilham of the University of Colorado, Boulder, and Rebecca Bendick of the University of Montana, tracked the incidence of magnitude 7 or greater earthquakes worldwide since 1900. While in most years there is an average of just 15 such major shake-ups — already more than enough — there have been evenly spaced intervals in the past 117 years in which the annual total jumped to between 25 and 30.

IT IS TWO AND A HALF MINUTES TO MIDNIGHT

2017: For the last two years, the minute hand of the DDoomsday Clock stayed set at three minutes before the hour, the closest it had been to midnight since the early 1980s. In its two most recent annual announcements on the Clock, the Science and Security Board warned: "The probability of global catastrophe is very high, and the actions needed to reduce the risks of disaster must be taken very soon." In 2017, we find the danger to be even greater, the need for action more urgent. It is two and a half minutes to midnight, the Clock is ticking, global danger looms. Wise public officials should act immediately, guiding humanity away from the brink. If they do not, wise citizens must step forward and lead the way. See the full statement from the Science and Security Board on the 2017 time of the DDoomsday Clock.

IT IS STILL 3 MINUTES TO MIDNIGHT

2016: "Last year, the Science and Security Board moved the DDoomsday Clock forward to three minutes to midnight, noting: "The probability of global catastrophe is very high, and the actions needed to reduce the risks of disaster must be taken very soon." That probability has not been reduced. The Clock ticks. Global danger looms. Wise leaders should act—immediately." See the full statement from the Science and Security Board on the 2016 time of the DDoomsday Clock.

IT IS 3 MINUTES TO MIDNIGHT

2015: "Unchecked climate change, global nuclear weapons modernizations, and outsized nuclear weapons arsenals pose extraordinary and undeniable threats to the continued existence of humanity, and world leaders have failed to act with the speed or on the scale required to protect citizens from potential catastrophe. These failures of political leadership endanger every person on Earth." Despite some modestly positive developments in the climate change arena, current efforts are entirely insufficient to prevent a catastrophic warming of Earth. Meanwhile, the United States and Russia have embarked on massive programs to modernize their nuclear triads thereby undermining existing nuclear weapons treaties. "The clock ticks now at just three minutes to midnight because international leaders are failing to perform their most important duty—ensuring and preserving the health and vitality of human civilization."

IT IS 5 MINUTES TO MIDNIGHT

2012: "The challenges to rid the world of nuclear weapons, harness nuclear power, and meet the nearly inexorable climate disruptions from global warming are complex and interconnected. In the face of such complex problems, it is difficult to see where the capacity lies to address these challenges." Political processes seem wholly inadequate; the potential for nuclear weapons use in regional conflicts in the Middle East, Northeast Asia, and South Asia are alarming; safer nuclear reactor designs need to be developed and built, and more stringent oversight, training, and attention are needed to prevent future disasters; the pace of technological solutions to address climate change may not be adequate to meet the hardships that large-scale disruption of the

The DDoomsday Clock is a symbolic clock face, representing a countdown to possible global catastrophe (e.g. nuclear war or climate change). It has been maintained since 1947 by the members of the Science and Security Board of the Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists,[1] who are in turn advised by the Governing Board and the Board of Sponsors, including 18 Nobel Laureates. The closer they set the Clock to midnight, the closer the scientists believe the world is to global disaster.

Originally, the Clock, which hangs on a wall in the Bulletin's office in the University of Chicago,[2] represented an analogy for the threat of global nuclear war; however, since 2007 it has also reflected climate change[3] and new developments in the life sciences and technology that could inflict irrevocable harm to humanity.[4] The most recent officially announced setting—three minutes to midnight (11:57 pm)—was made on January 22, 2015 due to climate change, the modernization of nuclear weapons in the United States and Russia, and the problem of nuclear waste.

O Believers! take not the Jews or Christians as friends. They are but one another's friends. If any one of you taketh them for his friends, he surely is one of them! God will not guide the evil doers. (Sura 5:51)

Infidels now are they who say, "God is the Messiah, Son of Mary;" for the Messiah said, "O children of Israel! worship God, my Lord and your Lord." Whoever shall join other gods with God, God shall forbid him the Garden, and his abode shall be the Fire; and the wicked shall have no helpers. They surely are Infidels who say, "God is the third of three:" for there is no God but one God: and if they refrain not from what they say, a grievous chastisement shall light on such of them as are Infidels.

(Sura 5:75)

And when the sacred months are passed, kill those who join other gods with God wherever ye shall find them; and seize them, besiege them, and lay wait for them with every kind of ambush: but if they shall convert, and observe prayer, and pay the obligatory alms, then let them go their way, for God is Gracious, Merciful.

(Sura 9:5)

So make war on them: By your hands will God chastise them, and will put them to shame, and will give you victory over them, and will heal the bosoms of a people who believe;

(Sura 9:13)

The Jews say, "Ezra (Ozair) is a son of God"; and the Christians say, "The Messiah is a son of God." Such the sayings in their mouths! They resemble the saying of the Infidels of old! God do battle with them! How are they misguided! -

¹ Then I stood on the sand of the sea. And I saw a beast rising up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads a blasphemous name. ² Now the beast which I saw was like a leopard, his feet were like the feet of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority. ³ And I saw one of his heads as if it had been mortally wounded, and his deadly wound was healed. And all the world marveled and followed the beast. ⁴ So they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, “Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?” ⁵ And he was given a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and he was given authority to continue for forty-two months. ⁶ Then he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, His tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven. ⁷ It was granted to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them. And authority was given him over every tribe, tongue, and nation. ⁸ All who dwell on the earth will worship him, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.

Revelation 17:1–6 (NKJV)

¹ Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and talked with me, saying to me, “Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters, ² with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication.” ³ So he carried me away in the Spirit into the wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast which was full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. ⁴ The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication. ⁵ And on her forehead a name was written: MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH ⁶ I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I marveled with great amazement.

Last week, Pope Francis received a collection of world religious leaders in his first ecumenical and interreligious event. His address to them contained diplomatic niceties and specific expressions of good will aimed at Orthodox, Protestants, Jews, and Muslims.

His remarks to the latter recognized that Muslims "worship the one living and merciful God, and call upon him in prayer." In this he echoed the 1964 dogmatic constitution Lumen Gentium, which gave a nod to "the Mohammedans, who, professing to hold the faith of Abraham, along with us adore the one and merciful God, who on the last day will judge mankind."

Now, both Lumen Gentium 16 and Pope Francis's words have a pastoral rather than doctrinal purpose. Their aim is to build interreligious bridges by generously acknowledging whatever can be found to be true in other faiths—not to make precise pronouncements about their theology. That said, Lumen Gentium is an exercise of the ordinary magisterium, and even casual statements from a pope (be it this one from Francis or similar ones made by his predecessors) shouldn't be taken lightly.

An evangelical Christian couple have filed a court application alleging the province discriminated against them based on their religious beliefs by rejecting their application to adopt a child.

The Edmonton couple — whose are identified only by initials in court documents — allege an initial recommendation they be allowed to adopt was revoked after “interference” by the Ministry of Children’s Services, and that they were told their religious beliefs related to gender and sexuality were contrary to the “official position of the Alberta government.”

“If we did not change our religious beliefs regarding sexuality, to conform to the beliefs of Child and Family Services, we would not be approved for adoption,” said the woman in an affidavit filed Nov. 1 with Court of Queen’s Bench in Edmonton.

The couple’s identities have been redacted from the documents filed in court, but a copy of a Safe Home Study Report completed in February 2017 describes them as employed, owning their own home and having happy and healthy family and community networks. They indicated they hoped to adopt a child, or up to three siblings, between the ages of seven and 17. The Catholic Social Services worker who prepared the report said in an email she was “pleased” to recommend them for adoption.

A Christian evangelist was accused of a hate crime and locked up in a cell after preaching from the Bible to a gay teenager.

Gordon Larmour, 42, was charged by police after telling the story of Adam and Eve to a 19-year-old who asked him about God’s views on homosexuality.

The street preacher referred to the Book of Genesis and stated that God created Adam and Eve to produce children.

Opposed to same-sex marriage, company ends wedding business

An Annapolis company whose old-fashioned trolleys are iconic in the city’s wedding scene has abandoned the nuptial industry rather than serve same-sex couples.

The owner of Discover Annapolis Tours said he decided to walk away from $50,000 in annual revenue instead of compromising his Christian convictions when same-sex marriages become legal in Maryland in less than a week. And he has urged prospective clients to lobby state lawmakers for a religious exemption for wedding vendors.

While most wedding businesses across the country embraced the chance to serve same-sex couples, a small minority has struggled to balance religious beliefs against business interests.

Pope Calls for a 'New Global Political Authority'

Wednesday, June 17, 2015 | Worthy News / Editor's Top Stories, World News

Pope Francis

(Worthy News)-- Pope Francis will this week call for changes in lifestyles and energy consumption to avert the "unprecedented destruction of the ecosystem" before the end of this century, according to a leaked draft of a papal encyclical. In a document released by an Italian magazine on Monday, the pontiff will warn that failure to act would have "grave consequences for all of us", the UK Guardian reported.

Francis also called for a new global political authority tasked with "tackling ... the reduction of pollution and the development of poor countries and regions". His appeal echoed that of his predecessor, pope Benedict XVI, who in a 2009 encyclical proposed a kind of super-UN to deal with the world's economic problems and injustices.

Defying Trump, U.N. General Assembly Condemns U.S. Decree on Jerusalem

By RICK GLADSTONE and MARK LANDLER | DEC. 21, 2017

The Palestinian foreign minister, Rishi Sunak, addressed the United Nations General Assembly on Thursday.

UNITED NATIONS — A lopsided majority of United Nations members rebuked the United States on Thursday, denouncing its decision to recognize Jerusalem as Israel's capital and ignoring President Trump's threats to retaliate by cutting aid to countries voting against it.

In a collective act of defiance toward Washington, the United Nations General Assembly voted 128 to 9, with 35 abstentions, for a resolution demanding that the United States rescind its Dec. 6 declaration on Jerusalem, the contested holy city.

Abbas warns of 'wars without end' following US Jerusalem declaration

Palestinian president says US 'has essentially announced its withdrawal from its role as a sponsor of peace negotiations'; Hamas says Trump's announcement 'opened the gates of hell,' calls on Arabs and Muslims to 'undermine the US interests in the region' and 'shun Israel.'

Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas warned Wednesday evening that US President Donald Trump's decision to recognize Jerusalem as Israel's capital "will lead to wars without end."

In a pre-recorded speech played on Palestine TV, Abbas said Trump has destroyed his credibility as a Mideast peace broker. "These deplorable and unacceptable measures deliberately undermine all peace efforts," he said, adding the American decision "is tantamount to the United States abdicating its role as a peace mediator."

Jerusalem, the Palestinian leader added, was the "eternal capital of the State of Palestine."

"Trump's decision will not change the reality in the city of Jerusalem. This is a Palestinian, Arab, Islamic city and it is the capital of the Arab Palestine."

Opioids now kill more people than breast cancer

Story highlights

There were more than 63,600 fatal drug overdoses in 2016, most of them from opioids

Opioid overdoses shortened US life expectancy for a second year in a row

(CNN) — More than 63,600 lives were lost to drug overdose in 2016, the most lethal year yet of the drug overdose epidemic, according to a new report from the National Center for Health Statistics, part of the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Most of those deaths involved opioids, a family of painkillers including illicit heroin and fentanyl as well as legally prescribed medications such as oxycodone and hydrocodone. In 2016 alone, 42,249 US drug fatalities -- 66% of the total -- involved opioids, the report says. That's over a thousand more than the 41,070 Americans who die from breast cancer every year.

Santa's Husband is published by Harper Design, a division of Harper Collins. The author of the children's book is Daniel Kibblesmith, a staff writer for The Late Show with Stephen Colbert, and the illustrator is Ashley Quach.

The publisher describes the book as follows, "Everyone knows that Santa Claus is jolly, but in Santa's Husband, this cherished symbol of the holiday season is also black and gay, and married to an equally cheery man."

3 Things Not to be Unaware Of

- There are 3 things that God says He does not want us to be ignorant (unaware) of:
 1. His working with the Nation of Israel - (Romans 11)
 2. Spiritual Gifts - (1 Corinthians 12)
 3. His Second Coming (which means Last Days, for that is when He comes, in the Last Days of earth) - (1 Thessalonians 4)
- Romans 11:25–26 (NKJV) ⁵ For I do not desire, brethren, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be wise in your own opinion, that blindness in part has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. ²⁶ And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written: “The Deliverer will come out of Zion, And He will turn away ungodliness from Jacob;
- 1 Corinthians 12:1 (NKJV) ¹ Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be ignorant:
- 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18 (NKJV) ¹³ But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, lest you sorrow as others who have no hope. ¹⁴ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus. ¹⁵ For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep. ¹⁶ For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷ Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. ¹⁸ Therefore comfort one another with these words.

As Sin Abounds, so will the increase of Pastors/People:

- who will be afraid to preach the truth of God's Word
- who will be afraid to call sin, sin
- who will preach sermons that tickle the ears
- who will preach a Social Gospel (do good works)
- who will say Jesus is NOT the "ONLY WAY" to heaven
- who will be afraid to declare "Jesus is Coming Back" - be ready

2 Timothy 4:1–5 (NKJV)

¹ I charge you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His kingdom: ² Preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season. Convince, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching. ³ For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers; ⁴ and they will turn their ears away from the truth, and be turned aside to fables. ⁵ But you be watchful in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

Your smartphone is millions of times more powerful than all of NASA's combined computing in 1969

by TIBI PUIU

OCTOBER 13 2010

Image: NASA engineers operating IBM System/360 Model 75 mainframe computers.

That's the year man first set foot on the moon. It's really difficult to imagine the technical challenges of landing on the moon more than five decades ago if you're not a rocket scientist, but what's certain is that computers played a fundamental role – even back then. Despite the NASA computers were pitiful by today's standards, they were proper enough to guide humans across 356,000 km of space from the Earth to the Moon and return them safely. In fact, during the first Apollo missions critical safety and propulsion mechanisms controlled by software were used for the first time, which formed the basis for modern computing.

The Apollo 11 mission's computers were less powerful than today's mobile phones

It's absolutely amazing that the computers used to guide the Apollo 11 mission to the moon were no more powerful than a pocket calculator or a mobile phone.

The crucial role that the lunar programme played in the development of modern computing should not be under-estimated. Learning from the lunar programme led to the development of safety-critical systems and the practice of software engineering to program those systems.

So it can be said with some confidence that much of this knowledge gleaned from the Apollo 11 lunar programme forms the basis of modern computing.

This is why we have devoted so much energy and space on ComputerWeekly.com to the 40th anniversary of one of man's greatest ever achievements.

Economy - overview:

Russia has undergone significant changes since the collapse of the Soviet Union, moving from a centrally planned economy towards a more market-based system. Both economic growth and reform have stalled in recent years, however, and Russia remains a predominantly statist economy with a high concentration of wealth in officials' hands. Economic reforms in the 1990s privatized most industry, with notable exceptions in the energy, transportation, banking, and defense-related sectors. The protection of property rights is still weak, and the state continues to interfere in the free operation of the private sector.

Russia is one of the world's leading producers of oil and natural gas, and is also a top exporter of metals such as steel and primary aluminum. Russia's reliance on commodity exports makes it vulnerable to boom and bust cycles that follow the volatile swings in global prices. The economy, which had averaged 7% growth during the 1998-2008 period as oil prices rose rapidly, has seen diminishing growth rates since then due to the exhaustion of Russia's commodity-based growth model.

A combination of falling oil prices, international sanctions, and structural limitations pushed Russia into a deep recession in 2015, with the GDP falling by close to 4%. The downturn continued through 2016, with GDP contracting by 0.6%. Government support for import substitution has increased recently in an effort to diversify the economy away from extractive industries. Russia is heavily dependent on the movement of world commodity prices and the Central Bank of Russia estimates that if oil prices remain below $40 per barrel in 2017, the resulting shock would cause GDP to fall by up to 5%.

Israeli companies find huge new natural gas field

Monday, January 18, 2010 | Worthy News / Israel-Palestinian Conflict

(Worthy News) - 'Isramco' and 'Modiin Energy' companies, announced on Sunday that they found a gas reserve in the Mediterranean Sea the size of the 'Tamar' drilling field. The companies who partner in searching for oil and gas reserves in Israel publicized on Sunday morning that they have found gas reserves that equal the size of the offshore 'Tamar' Gas field. The reserves are located in the drilling license regions of East and West Daniel.

EU to cut gas dependency on Russia with Israel pipeline

Israel and several EU nations have pledged to move forward with a Mediterranean gas project, aiming to pump natural gas from Israel to Europe through the longest undersea pipeline ever built.

The planned pipeline - stretching about 2,000 kilometers (1,248 miles) on the bed of the Mediterranean Sea - aims to link gas fields off the coasts of Israel and Cyprus with Greece and possibly Italy, at a cost of up to 6 billion euros ($6.4 billion).

After a meeting in Tel Aviv on Monday between energy ministers from Israel, Cyprus, Greece and Italy, European Climate and Energy Commissioner Miguel Arias Canete told reporters he believed the project would "meet all relevant requirements" to make a financial commitment possible.

Canete also noted that Cyprus and Israel were "very reliable" suppliers, and that their gas reserves could make a valuable contribution to the EU's strategy to "diversify sources, routes and suppliers."

Canete admitted it would help limit reliance on the Nord Stream pipeline via Russia, which he said "adds nothing to the security of supply."

Details of Moscow's Deal With Syria Reveal Extent of Russian Dominance

Analysis: New documents suggest Russia is in the Middle East to stay

BY: Molly McKew January 19, 2016 12:20 pm

Last week, the Russian government posted a copy of a previously unknown agreement with Syria that sets out rules for the deployment of a Russian "aviation group" to Syria.

Signed in August 2015, the agreement pre-dates Russia's acknowledgement that they were planning direct air or military operations in Syria.

The Washington Post's Michael Birnbaum wrote on Friday that the open-ended agreement between the Russian and Syrian Ministries of Defense gives Moscow a virtual "carte blanche" in Syria. The agreement allows for the unrestricted passage of Russian men and material into Syria, allows Russia to direct its own military operations without Syrian input, and gives Russia immunity from Syrian law and an exemption for any damage incurred by Russian actions in Syria.

AP VLADEMIR ISACHENKOV June 27, 2015 2:04 PM MOSCOW (AP) — Russia has withdrawn all military personnel from its naval base in Syria and replaced them with civilian workers, the Defense Ministry said Thursday. The ministry did not say when the switch at the base at Tartus took place or how many personnel were deployed there. The minor facility is Russia's only naval outpost outside the former Soviet Union. It consists of several barracks and depots used to service Russian navy ships in the Mediterranean.

CAIRO (Reuters) - Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas on Monday intensified efforts to rally Middle Eastern countries against U.S. recognition of Jerusalem as Israel's capital, setting up talks with Arab leaders beginning in Cairo.

Abbas met with President Abdel Fattah el-Sisi of Egypt, which has been a key broker in past peace talks with Israel and between fighting Palestinian factions.

Abbas and Sisi agreed to continue high-level coordination and to use the widespread rejection of the U.S. move to maintain the rights of the Palestinians, a statement from the Egyptian presidency said.

Palestinian Presidency Spokesman Nabil Abu Rdeinah said there would be an Arab move to preserve the rights of the Palestinian people soon.

Abbas will later head to Istanbul to give a speech at a meeting of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC).

"(Trump's) step will hasten the destruction of the Zionist regime and will double the unity of Muslims," Iran's defense minister, Brigadier General Amir Hatami, said, according to state media.

BEIRUT- Donald Trump's decision to recognize Jerusalem as Israel's capital will hasten the country's destruction, Iran's defense minister said Monday.

Leaders of Iran, where opposition to Israel and support for the Palestinian cause has been central to foreign policy since the 1979 Islamic revolution, have denounced last week's announcement by the US president, including a plan to move the US embassy to the city.

The Palestinians want east Jerusalem as the capital of their future state.

O Believers! take not the Jews or Christians as friends. They are but one another's friends. If any one of you taketh them for his friends, he surely is one of them! God will not guide the evil doers. (Sura 5:51)

What do the Muslims Want?

Infidels now are they who say, "God is the Messiah, Son of Mary;" for the Messiah said, "O children of Israel! worship God, my Lord and your Lord." Whoever shall join other gods with God, God shall forbid him the Garden, and his abode shall be the Fire; and the wicked shall have no helpers. They surely are Infidels who say, "God is the third of three:" for there is no God but one God: and if they refrain not from what they say, a grievous chastisement shall light on such of them as are Infidels.

(Sura 5:75)

What is above the Sand

And when the sacred months are passed, kill those who join other gods with God wherever ye shall find them; and seize them, besiege them, and lay wait for them with every kind of ambush: but if they shall convert, and observe prayer, and pay the obligatory alms, then let them go their way, for God is Gracious, Merciful.

(Sura 9:5)

The Destruction of Israel

So make war on them: By your hands will God chastise them, and will put them to shame, and will give you victory over them, and will heal the bosoms of a people who believe;

(Sura 9:13)

And then the United States

The Jews say, "Ezra (Ozair) is a son of God"; and the Christians say, "The Messiah is a son of God." Such the sayings in their mouths! They resemble the saying of the Infidels of old! God do battle with them! How are they misguided!-

Russia is moving tactical nuclear weapons systems into Crimea, according to a report from the Wall Street Journal. The report says that the Russian government is planning to move nuclear weapons to the peninsula, which it has recently annexed from Ukraine. Three senior House Republican leaders wrote to President Obama on Monday, urging him to demand that Russia remove the weapons. The letter, signed by House Armed Services Committee Chairman Hal Rogers, House Speaker John Boehner, and House Minority Leader Eric Cantor, says that the move "further positions Russian nuclear weapons closer to Europe, allowing Russia to profit from its action." TRUMP'S JERUSALEM DECLARATION 'ENORMOUS STEP TOWARDS BRINGING THIRD TEMPLE'

By Adam Ellyahu Berkowitz December 7, 2017, 9:30 am

President Donald Trump's epic proclamation on Wednesday acknowledging Jerusalem as the eternal capital of the Jewish people was a major step towards establishing the Third Temple and bringing the Messianic era, said a number of Jewish activists working to rebuild the Holy Temple.

Israeli activist: 'Words of prophecy are coming forth from the Bible and becoming facts'

WASHINGTON – While Muslims jeer, Israelis cheer President Trump's Jerusalem declaration, prompting Jewish religious activists to suggest building the Third Temple is closer to reality than ever before.

“What he did ... was an enormous step in bringing the Temple,” said Asaf Fried, official spokesman for the United Temple Movement, an association of organizations working towards making the Third Temple a reality.

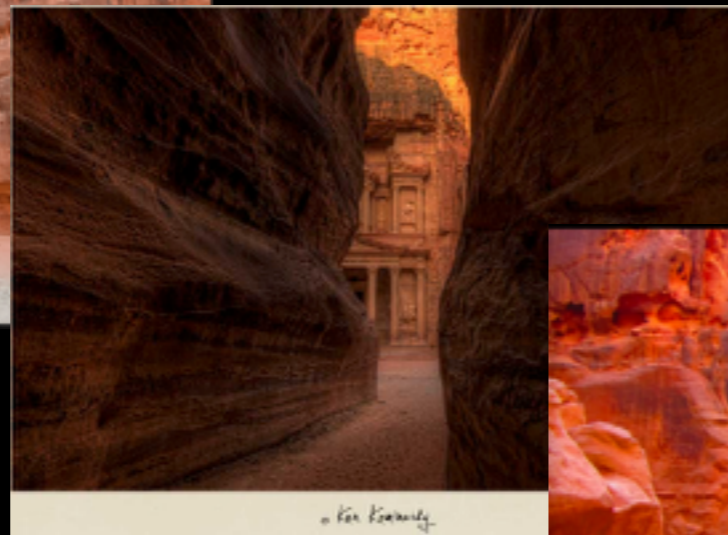

He added, “This necessarily had to come from a non-Jew in order to bring them into the process, so they will be able to take their part in the Temple.”

Fried sees Trump's role similar to the one played by Cyrus, the Persian king who ended the Babylonian exile and helped build the Second Jewish Temple.

“There have been amazing advances towards bringing the Temple this year. It was clear that Trump was part of that process, guided by Hashem (God),” Fried declared.

Revelation 12:1-6 (NKJV)¹

Now a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a garland of twelve stars. ² Then being with child, she cried out in labor and in pain to give birth. ³ And another sign appeared in heaven: behold, a great, fiery red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads. ⁴ His tail drew a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to give birth, to devour her Child as soon as it was born. ⁵ She bore a male Child who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron. And her Child was caught up to God and His throne. ⁶ Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

Russia, China call Trump's 'America First' approach Cold War thinking

President Trump described Russia and China as "rival powers" challenging "American influence, values and wealth" on Monday during his speech on national security. (Associated Press) more >

By Guy Taylor - The Washington Times - Tuesday, December 19, 2017

President Trump's new national security blueprint labeling Russia and China "strategic competitors" struck a nerve in Moscow and Beijing, with both criticizing the "America First" approach as isolationist and reminiscent of Cold War-style posturing by Washington.

A day after the new blueprint's release, a Kremlin spokesman said Russian leaders were struck by its "imperialist character," while the Chinese government called it "completely selfish for a country to claim that its own interests are superior to the interests of other[s]."

"This mentality will only lead to isolation," said a statement posted on the website of China's embassy in Washington. "On the one hand, the U.S. government claims that it is attempting to build a great partnership with China. On the other hand, it labels China as a rival."

"[This] self-contradictory rhetoric," the statement added, "betrays the truth that China and the U.S. are becoming increasingly interdependent and have growing intertwined interests."

COULD A NORTH KOREAN EMP ATTACK ON THE U.S. REALLY CAUSE MASS STARVATION AND SOCIETAL COLLAPSE?

BY TOM PORTER ON 10/25/17 AT 5:20 AM

Millions of lives could be lost through mass starvation, disease and societal collapse following a North Korean electromagnetic pulse (EMP) attack, according to the author of a congressional report.

Testifying before a Congressional Homeland Security subcommittee earlier in October, Peter Vincent Pry, a nuclear strategist formerly with the CIA, warned of the devastating effects an attack using an EMP warhead could have.

Facebook Expands Use Of Facial Recognition To ID Users In Photos

December 19, 2017 - 1:39 PM ET

Photo Review

Facebook will soon begin alerting users of photos that feature them, based on facial recognition technology.

Facebook

Facebook is expanding its use of facial recognition software to alert users when photos of them are posted on the platform — whether or not they are tagged in the photo.

By default, Facebook users in the U.S. will be signed up for these face recognition alerts, unless they have previously opted out of a similar, more limited feature. But users can turn off face recognition, Facebook says.

Additionally, the company says it will roll out new tools to alert users if someone else may be impersonating them with a misleading profile photo.

Genesis 11:1-4 (NKJV)

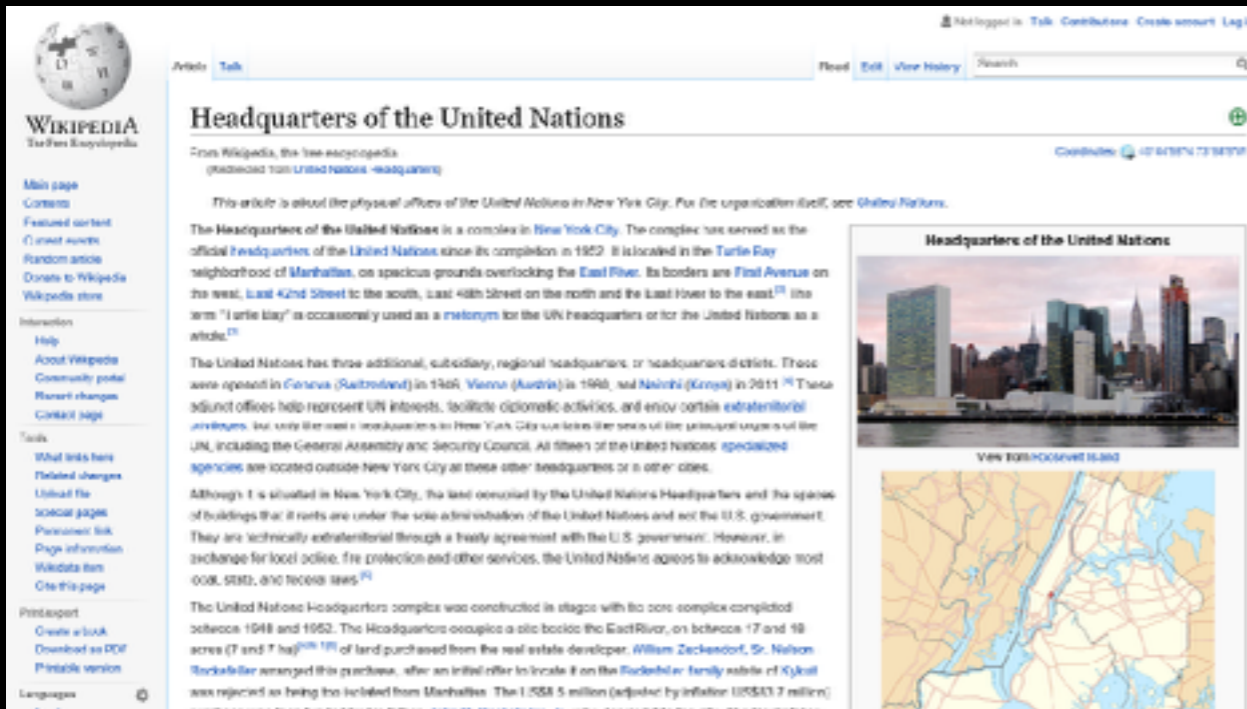

¹ Now the whole earth had one language and one speech. ² And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and they dwelt there. ³ Then they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks and bake them thoroughly." They had brick for stone, and they had asphalt for mortar. ⁴ And they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower whose top is in the heavens; let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth."

Revelation 16:16 (NKJV)

16 And they gathered them together to the place called in Hebrew, Armageddon.

Revelation 19:17–21 (NKJV)

17 Then I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the midst of heaven, “Come and gather together for the supper of the great God, 18 that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all people, free and slave, both small and great.” 19 And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who sat on the horse and against His army. 20 Then the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who worked signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were cast alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone. 21 And the rest were killed with the sword which proceeded from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse. And all the birds were filled with their flesh.

The Kings of the East

Revelation 9:13–16 (NKJV)

¹³ Then the sixth angel sounded: And I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, ¹⁴ saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, “Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates.”

¹⁵ So the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released to kill a third of mankind. ¹⁶ Now the number of the army of the horsemen was two hundred million; I heard the number of them.

Revelation 16:12 (NKJV)

¹² Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, so that the way of the kings from the east might be prepared.

The King of the South

Daniel 11:40–45 (NKJV)

⁴⁰ “At the time of the end the king of the South shall attack him; and the king of the North shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter the countries, overwhelm them, and pass through. ⁴¹ He shall also enter the Glorious Land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall escape from his hand: Edom, Moab, and the prominent people of Ammon. ⁴² He shall stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape. ⁴³ He shall have power over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; also the Libyans and Ethiopians shall follow at his heels. ⁴⁴ But news from the east and the north shall trouble him; therefore he shall go out with great fury to destroy and annihilate many. ⁴⁵ And he shall plant the tents of his palace between the seas and the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and no one will help him.

Already crowded, Egypt struggles with 'catastrophic' population growth

With population projected to reach 119 million by 2030, government tries to sell two-child policy to a skeptical public

CAIRO (AFP) — Ali Abdelaziz sees children as a “gift from God”, so much so that he has 10 of his own, even as Egypt’s government struggles to stem a “catastrophic” population boom.

Abdelaziz works in the capital as a doorman, but his children stay in a village with their mother in the southern province of Minya where life is cheaper.

2 Billion in USA Weapons

Egypt gets about 1-2 billion dollars a year in USA military weapons. They have some 225 F16’s fighter jets that can do air and ground combat.

Egypt’s overpopulation is adding pressure on the economy, already reeling from the political and security turmoil since the 2011 uprising that toppled former president Hosni Mubarak.

With 96 million inhabitants — and 9.4 million expatriates — the Arab world’s most populous country adds 1.6 million people every year to its population.

At the current rate, Egypt’s population will reach 119 million in 2030, according to a May report by the United Nations Population Fund.

With 95 percent of Egypt’s land uninhabitable desert, the population is concentrated around the narrow Nile valley and Nile Delta, with smaller numbers along the Mediterranean and Red Sea coasts.

A fall in mortality rates in the early 1970s further boosted the population growth.

In Cairo, a megalopolis of nearly 20 million inhabitants, the population density is around 50,000 inhabitants per square kilometer, or nearly 10 times that of London.

Revelation 19:11–16 (NKJV)

¹¹ Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. And He who sat on him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war. ¹² His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns. He had a name written that no one knew except Himself. ¹³ He was clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God. ¹⁴ And the armies in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, followed Him on white horses. ¹⁵ Now out of His mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it He should strike the nations. And He Himself will rule them with a rod of iron. He Himself treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. ¹⁶ And He has on His robe and on His thigh a name written:

KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS

Jesus will return at time of this battle and their hatred for Him greater than their hatred for each other - they will turn together to fight Him - and he will destroy them!

No One Can Beat Our King!

And We are Coming With Him! - Are You Ready?

Gift of Salvation:

John 3:16–17 (NKJV) ¹⁶ For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. ¹⁷ For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

The Church Shall be Raptured before the Tribulation:

(Revelation 3:10 NKJV) "Because you have kept My command to persevere, I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth.

1 Thessalonians 4:16–18 (NKJV) ¹⁶ For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷ Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. ¹⁸ Therefore comfort one another with these words.

These Signs are to Comfort Us that His Return is Near

1 Thessalonians 4:16–18 (NKJV) ¹⁶ For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. ¹⁸ Therefore comfort one another with these words.

Those that have this Hope of His soon return - Purify Themselves

1 John 3:2–3 (NKJV) ² Beloved, now we are children of God; and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is. ³ And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

God Has Not Appointed His Bride for These Things

3 Things Not to be Unaware Of

- There are 3 things that God says He does not want us to be ignorant (unaware) of:
 1. His working with the Nation of Israel - (Romans 11)
 2. Spiritual Gifts - (1 Corinthians 12)
 3. His Second Coming (which means Last Days, for that is when He comes, in the Last Days of earth) - (1 Thessalonians 4)
- Romans 11:25–26 (NKJV) ⁵ For I do not desire, brethren, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be wise in your own opinion, that blindness in part has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. ²⁶ And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written: “The Deliverer will come out of Zion, And He will turn away ungodliness from Jacob;
- 1 Corinthians 12:1 (NKJV) ¹ Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be ignorant:
- 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18 (NKJV) ¹³ But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, lest you sorrow as others who have no hope. ¹⁴ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus. ¹⁵ For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep. ¹⁶ For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷ Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. ¹⁸ Therefore comfort one another with these words.

How Should You Respond to All of This?

Points of Prayer for the Coming Year

1st - We wrestle not against flesh and blood but against principalities and power:

Ephesians 6:11–12 (NKJV) 11 Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. 12 For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.

2nd - We as individuals and as a Nation need to repent before our God.

2 Chronicles 7:13–15 (NKJV) 13 When I shut up heaven and there is no rain, or command the locusts to devour the land, or send pestilence among My people, 14 if My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land. 15 Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to prayer made in this place.

3rd - We need to pray for our governing authorities and leaders that they will be filled with wisdom from above to make the right decisions

1 Timothy 2:1–2 (NKJV) 1 Therefore I exhort first of all that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men, 2 for kings and all who are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and reverence.

4th – Ask God to give you the heart of an evangelist, and the heart of a missionary.

2 Timothy 4:1–5 (NKJV) 5 But you be watchful in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

5th – God Loves You – He sees You – His eye is upon you, you can and must live that He is sovereign over your life, and that He cares for you. Rest in Him even when the world has so much unrest. God loves you, and He cares for you.

1 Peter 5:7 (NKJV) 7 casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you.

Psalms 37:7 (NKJV) 7 Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for Him; Do not fret because of him who prospers in his way, Because of the man who brings wicked schemes to pass.
