Start talking. Find a conversation starter for your group.

- What's one word that you hope describes your relationships?

Start thinking. Ask a question to get your group thinking.

- Which part of this message was most impactful for you and why?
- What's the best relationship advice you've been given?
- Read Proverbs 4:5-7. How do you typically seek out wisdom, and how might this Scripture change how you "get wisdom" in the future?

Start sharing. Choose a question to create openness.

- All relationships need healthy emotional, spiritual, and physical boundaries. Do any of your current relationships need boundaries? If so, how could you put a boundary in place this week?
- What would it look like to put God first in all of your relationships? Are there any changes you could make to prioritize Him?

Start praying. Be bold and pray with power.

Father, thank You for trusted relationships that can help us grow closer to You. Please help us find good wisdom and advice so that we can make smart choices. Protect our relationships and set us apart in a way that leads people to You. In Jesus' name, amen.

Start doing. Commit to a step and live it out this week.
