

Spiritual Disciplines: Worship

Hebrews 10:19-25, Psalm 95

Spiritual Disciplines: Worship

- Why does worship matter?

¹⁹ Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have boldness to enter the sanctuary through the blood of Jesus— ²⁰ he has inaugurated for us a new and living way through the curtain (that is, through his flesh)— ²¹ and since we have a great high priest over the house of God, ²² let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed in pure water.

²³ Let us hold on to the confession of our hope without wavering, since he who promised is faithful. ²⁴ And let us consider one another in order to provoke love and good works, ²⁵ not neglecting to gather together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging each other, and all the more as you see the day approaching.

Spiritual Disciplines: Worship

- Why does worship matter?
- What does worship look like?

- 1 Come, let's shout joyfully to the Lord,
shout triumphantly to the rock of our salvation!
 - 2 Let's enter his presence with thanksgiving;
let's shout triumphantly to him in song.
 - 3 For the Lord is a great God,
a great King above all gods.
 - 4 The depths of the earth are in his hand,
and the mountain peaks are his.
 - 5 The sea is his; he made it.
His hands formed the dry land.

A dark, low-key photograph of a person kneeling in prayer, with their hands clasped in front of their face. The person is wearing a dark long-sleeved shirt and dark pants. The background is dark and out of focus.

6 Come, let's worship and bow down;
let's kneel before the Lord our Maker.

7 For he is our God,
and we are the people of his pasture,
the sheep under his care.

Today, if you hear his voice:

8 Do not harden your hearts as at Meribah,
as on that day at Massah in the wilderness
