

“Faith amid Chaos”

Mark 2: 1 – 12

Context: Remember that in the preceding days Jesus has spoken at the synagogue in Capernaum on the Sabbath, commanded a demon to be quiet & leave a man, healed many folks, preached in other towns around Galilee, and then healed a man with leprosy.

Fallout from our failure to obey Christ can make it difficult for others to get to him. (v. 1-3)

Did you see faith on display in this passage? Jesus did!

Faith was seen amid the chaos of desperation & destruction
(v. 4-5)

The religious leaders (teachers of the law) were there to listen...

Chaos in our mind can become an opportunity to find faith in Jesus, rather than what we think we know / religion. (v. 6-12)

Sharing in Communion together...

Have you ever repented & believed upon Jesus? Why not today?
