July 2026

Dear praying friend,

We visited many of you last summer—what a full year it has been! Of the 400 class hours this last school year, Joel taught 250 of them. God sustained Joel over this last year, but we are grateful for a summer that allows him to prepare for the workload rather than running on fumes.

Many of you prayed for a recent Greek class with students from Uganda, Kenya, South Sudan, the Philippines, British Columbia, and Alberta. Joel was helped in the teaching load by one of Foundation's most recent graduates, who far exceeded expectations and grew in the process!

Thank you also for your prayers for us as we begin offering classes toward certification with the Association of Certified Biblical Counselors (ACBC) in partnership with Detroit Baptist Theological Seminary. Joel taught a class on Systematic Theology for Counselling, and Jacob Elwart taught a weekend class in May. Both classes were full to capacity. And now we both have finished our exams for ACBC certification. Sarah is planning out her next courses, working on a Masters of Theology in Counselling. Our prayer is to become the first ACBC training centre in Canada.

Joel is now completing requirements for an accreditation site visit on August 21. The work is demanding, but it has already strengthened and focused the education we are giving to our students. God has given us a rapid increase of new students for this coming year. Please pray that the work in planning and assessing would help us equip them better to love and serve our Saviour and Lord and fill the needs of His church. God has given us a front-row seat at the work He is doing in Western Canada. His work goes forward, with strength and energy! Thank you for your part working alongside us in prayer.
