MISSIONARY UPDATE

BUD TALBERT
FOUNDATION BAPTIST COLLEGE

August 2026

Dear Prayer Partners,

Greetings from Edmonton, Alberta. I had several brief opportunities to bear witness of Christ. The first was a longer opportunity to share the gospel with an Uber driver, and the other was a chance meeting with a grandmother while I was waiting for a ride to church. I trust and praise the Lord who provides these unexpected opportunities.

For over a year, I have been meeting weekly with a brother in Christ from our church. We read God's Word (through Revelation in one sitting), pray together, discuss the Scripture, and get to know each other better. Three weeks ago, we were joined by a young believer I have mentioned before. She was reluctant to read and pray herself, but soon joined in. This past week, another lady asked if she could also join our group. My living room is running out of seating, but I do enjoy believers eager to develop a regular walk with the Lord. Please pray for our meetings on Monday night.

I have struggled to stay in contact with my supporting churches since I have not been able to drive since April 2023. But this past May, I visited a church in the Denver area. I was privileged to preach on the godly home in Proverbs, Friday through Sunday school, and then present the ministries in which I am active. It was a wonderful visit, and I thoroughly enjoyed getting to know the pastor and some of the excellent brothers and sisters in Christ. Also, God recently began working out a way for me to visit my remaining supporting churches. Please pray that this will be worked out for God's glory.

June was the time for our college graduation. This year was special because my daughter-in-law and a brother in Christ from our church also participated. I have introduced Murget to you before. This year, he completed his Bible degree and is serving as a pastoral intern at our church while continuing to take courses toward his master's degree.

The Western Canada Baptist Fellowship (WCBF) Annual Conference was hosted in June by Meadowlands Baptist Church here in Edmonton. Our featured speaker was Patrick Odle, president of Baptist Mid-Missions. The pastors and families were blessed with excellent messages, good fellowship, and encouragement. We have enjoyed this fellowship for more than thirty years now by God's gracious blessing. Please pray for the WCBF to continue its encouragement to plant more Bible preaching churches in Canada.

Thank you for your kind and generous financial support and your faithful prayer support.

By God's grace,

James C. (Bud) Talbert
