John 17:1-26

GLORY

Glory, in much of this passage's use, means God _____, a weighty experience of God's _____.

RELATIONSHIP

There is an implied _____ in God's self-revelation: God making himself known and offering a committed relationship between you and him.

JESUS PRAYS: THE DISCIPLES:

- Knowing the Father:
 - v6: _____ in and through _____
 - v7: _____ that Jesus is God and from God – therefore truthful and authoritative
 - v8: _____ Jesus' words
 - v9-11: _____ with God, through Jesus Christ
- v15: _____ them from the evil one.
- v17-19: _____ them by Your Word, the Truth. _____ by Jesus.

JESUS PRAYS: ALL BELIEVERS

- v20-23: That they may be ____: _____ with God, _____ in devotion to God and, in Christ, to each other.
- v23: To show the world that Jesus _____ and _____, when we stand firm in the love of God.
- To be where Jesus is and see His full glory.

THE GOSPEL – A UNION

A freeing truth: God has not chosen you because of your merit. It is not an exchange of your earned behavior and His salvation. It is an invitation to join a loving, eternal, committed relationship with God. It is, in a figurative sense, marrying yourself to God. This opportunity is provided for you through the death of Jesus Christ, which paid for your sin and unworthiness for such a relationship – which is freeing, because you can give up worrying about your unworthiness and start focusing on delighting in God, who saves you and calls you His own. Start participating in and devoting yourself to this relationship and trust in the salvation Jesus has purchased for you.

John 17:1-26

1 After Jesus said this, he looked toward heaven and prayed:

“Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may glorify you. 2 For you granted him authority over all people that he might give eternal life to all those you have given him. 3 Now this is eternal life: that they know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent. 4 I have brought you glory on earth by finishing the work you gave me to do. 5 And now, Father, glorify me in your presence with the glory I had with you before the world began.

6 “I have revealed you to those whom you gave me out of the world. They were yours; you gave them to me and they have obeyed your word. 7 Now they know that everything you have given me comes from you. 8 For I gave them the words you gave me and they accepted them. They knew with certainty that I came from you, and they believed that you sent me.

9 I pray for them. I am not praying for the world, but for those you have given me, for they are yours. 10 All I have is yours, and all you have is mine. And glory has come to me through them. 11 I will remain in the world no longer, but they are still in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them by the power of your name, the name you gave me, so that they may be one as we are one. 12 While I was with them, I protected them and kept them safe by that name you gave me. None has been lost except the one doomed to destruction so that Scripture would be fulfilled.

13 “I am coming to you now, but I say these things while I am still in the world, so that they may have the full measure of my joy within them. 14 I have given them your word and the world has hated them, for they are not of the world any more than I am of the world. 15 My prayer is not that you take them out of the world but that you protect them from the evil one. 16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of it. 17 Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth. 18 As you sent me into the world, I have sent them into the world. 19 For them I sanctify myself, that they too may be truly sanctified.

20 “My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, 21 that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me.

22 I have given them the glory that you gave me, that they may be one as we are one— 23 I in them and you in me—so that they may be brought to complete unity. Then the world will know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me. 24 “Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, and to see my glory, the glory you have given me because you loved me before the creation of the world.

25 “Righteous Father, though the world does not know you, I know you, and they know that you have sent me. 26 I have made you known to them, and will continue to make you known in order that the love you have for me may be in them and that I myself may be in them.”
