

SERIES: The Parable of the Sower: Hearing & Receiving Salvation
(Matthew 13:3 – 9, 18 – 23)

The Four Soils of the Heart: The Worldly Heart
(Matthew 13:22)

“²² Now he who received seed among the thorns is he who hears the word, and the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful.”

#1. A heart that loves the world (v.22)

- The word world “kosmos” means the invisible, spiritual system of evil guided and governed by Satan and the demonic realm that leads to fleshly living.
- The word cares “merimna” means to care about, or be burdened, by the desires, pleasures, delights, and glamour of the sinful lifestyle the world has to offer.
- James 1:14; 1 John 2:15-17; James 4:4

Does your heart (love) belong to God?

#2. A heart that loves money and wealth (v.22)

- Ecclesiastes 5:10-11; Matthew 6:24; 1 Timothy 6:6-10; Hebrews 13:5

Does your heart belong to God or to the love of money and prosperity?

#3. A heart that does not produce fruit (v.22)

- Ephesians 2:1-10; Romans 12:2; 1 John 5:4-5

Does your whole heart belong to God and has it produced the fruit of salvation?
