Genesis 1:1-31

Dr. Greg Corbin

A worldview is the _____ from which we view reality and make sense of life and the world.

Our worldview helps us answer two key questions:

1. What is my source of truth?
2. Who is the authority for my life?

Everyone has a worldview.

Our worldview shapes our _____ decisions and lifestyles.

What does Genesis 1 tell us about God?

God is the _____ of everything and everyone.

God created the world from _____. (ex nihilo)

God _____ the world into existence. (fiat creation)

God created _____ unique and distinct from all other life.

God alone is sovereign and _____.

- Hasn't modern science disproven Genesis and the creation account in the Bible?
- In fact, science has not disproven _____ verse of the Bible.
- It's a _____ to say we cannot believe the Bible and believe in science.

Evolution is NOT a proven fact. It is an _____ theory.

If you believe in evolution, then you believe that _____ is the cause of _____.

Christians should live with an unapologetically _____ worldview.

The default worldview of our culture is a _____ worldview with no God, no authority, and no truth.

Believing Genesis 1 is true is the only worldview that offers true _____.

- The God who made the heavens and the earth will one day make the new _____ and the new _____.
- The light of creation was the light of the _____.
