

THE WORD
Advent Guide
BECAME FLESH

The Latin word adventus, from which we derive the word advent, is close to its Greek counterpart, parousia. Parousia has been used to describe both the arrival of God in the flesh and the Second Coming, thus making these two incarnational events the Church's focus during the advent season.

As Christians, we are exiles in this world, living in-between Christ's finished work on the cross and his prophesied triumphant return. At Advent, we contemplate the mystery of the incarnation: that God himself stepped into real human time, took on our likeness, and humbled himself to death on a cross for our salvation.

During these next few weeks, meditate on the magnitude of God taking on the form of a child, wrapped in swaddling clothes and laid in a manger. Contemplate the weight of our sin, the mercy and grace of Christ's death on our behalf, and the power of His resurrection. Consider the lovingkindness in Christ's promise to return and redeem creation.

The Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and will dwell among us yet. These are tidings of very great joy!

HYMN: Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence

Let all mortal flesh keep silence, and with awe and reverence stand;
ponder nothing earthly minded, for with blessing in his hand Christ our God to us approacheth our full homage to demand.

King of kings, yet born of Mary, as of old on earth he stood, Lord of lords, in human vesture, in the body and the blood, he will give to all the faithful his own self for heavenly food.

Rank on rank the host of heaven spreads its vanguard on the way, as the Light of light descendeth from the realms of endless day, that the powers of hell may vanish as the darkness clears away.

At his feet the six-winged seraph;
cherubim with sleepless eye veil their faces to the presence, as with ceaseless voice they cry, Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah, Lord Most High!

PRAYER:

THOU GREAT I AM,
Fill my mind with elevation and grandeur at the thought of a Being with whom one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day, A mighty God, who, amidst the lapse of worlds, and the revolutions of empires, feels no variableness, but is glorious in immortality.
May I rejoice that, while men die, the Lord lives;
that, while all creatures are broken reeds, empty cisterns,
fading flowers,
withering grass,
he is the Rock of Ages, the Fountain of living waters.
Turn my heart from vanity,
from dissatisfactions, from uncertainties of the present state, to an eternal interest in Christ.

HYMN: Come, Thou Long Expected Jesus

Come, Thou long expected Jesus Born to set Thy people free From our fears and sins release us
Let us find our rest in Thee Israel's strength and consolation Hope of all the earth Thou art
Dear desire of every nation
Joy of every longing heart Born Thy people to deliver Born a child and yet a King

Born to reign in us forever Now Thy gracious kingdom bring By Thine own eternal spirit Rule in all our hearts alone
By Thine all sufficient merit Raise us to Thy glorious throne

PRAYER:

"Dear Heavenly Father, we sing with great enthusiasm 'Joy to the world, the Lord has come, let each receive her King.' Yet as we review the true desires of our hearts we would confess that we are more prone to seek the gifts and benefits that Christ can grant than actually receive Him deep within our lives. There are times when we are frightened by what might happen if we truly took Jesus seriously and resolved to invite him into all the diverse dimensions of our lives.

Lord, have mercy upon us and cleanse us. Forgive the distorted images we hold of Christ which prevent us from living with him with the same trust and obedience as Joseph and Mary. Renew your sustaining Spirit within us that we might truly know and live in your joy through Jesus' redeeming name. Amen!

HYMN: O Come, O Come Emmanuel

O come, O come, Emmanuel And ransom captive Israel
That mourns in lonely exile here Until the Son of God appear Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

O come, Thou Rod of Jesse, free Thine own from Satan's tyranny

Our spirits by Thine advent here Disperse the gloomy clouds of night And death's dark shadows put to flight.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

PRAYER:

Though there was no room at the inn
To receive you upon your first arrival We would prepare you room here in our hearts
And here in our home,
Lord Christ.

As we decorate and celebrate, we do so to mark The memory of your redemptive movement into Our broken world, O God.

HYMN: Joyful, Joyful

Joyful, joyful, we adore You, God of glory, Lord of love;
Hearts unfold like flow'rs before You, Op'ning to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness;
Drive the dark of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness,
Fill us with the light of day!

All Your works with joy surround You, Earth and heav'n reflect Your rays, Stars and angels sing around You,
Center of unbroken praise;
Field and forest, vale and mountain, Flow'ry meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain Praising You eternally!

Always giving and forgiving,
Ever blessing, ever blest, Well-spring of the joy of living,
Ocean-depth of happy rest!
Loving Father, Christ our Brother, Let Your light upon us shine;
Teach us how to love each other,
Lift us to the joy divine.

PRAYER:

O SON OF GOD AND SON OF MAN,
Thou wast incarnate, didst suffer, rise, ascend for my sake;
Thy departure was not a token of separation but a pledge of return; Thy Word, promises, sacraments, show thy death until thou come again.
That day is no horror to me, for thy death has redeemed me,
thy Spirit fills me,
thy love animates me,
thy Word governs me.
I have trusted thee and thou hast not betrayed my trust;
waited for thee, and not waited in vain.

Thou wilt come to raise my body from the dust,
and re-unite it to my soul, by a wonderful work of infinite power and love, greater than that which bounds the oceans'
waters,
ebbs and flows the tides, keeps the stars in their courses, and gives life to all creatures.
This corruptible shall put on incorruption, this mortal, immortality, this natural body, a spiritual body, this dishonoured body, a glorious body, this weak body, a body of power.
I triumph now in thy promises as I shall do in their performance, for the head cannot live if the members are dead; Beyond the grave is resurrection, judgment, acquittal, dominion.

Every event and circumstance of my life will be dealt with — the sins of my youth, my secret sins, the sins of abusing thee, of disobeying thy Word, the sins of neglecting ministers' admonitions, the sins of violating my conscience —
all will be judged;
And after judgment, peace and rest, life and service, employment and enjoyment, for thine elect.
O God, keep me in this faith, and ever looking for Christ's return.
