

All in.

For Community

Community:

Com - a latin prefix meaning "together" or "with"

Munis - a latin root linked to "duty," "obligation," or "service"

Literal meaning of Community:

A group bound together by mutual obligation, shared service, and giving among one another.

Koinonia:

"common" or "shared"

In the New Testament, koinonia means active, committed participation in a shared life, a shared mission, and shared resources.

Acts 2:42

They were continually devoting themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

koinonia frequently translated as...
fellowship, partnership, sharing or contributing

God Himself exist in community as Father, Son and Spirit.

1 Peter 2:9

"But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood,
a holy nation, a people for his own possession,
that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light."

Connectivity does not equal Community!

All together but alone...

This sermon is not about joining a community group or small group!

A community or fellowship is only as strong as what its built on.

The Gospel is the strongest, deepest foundation
for community.

Phil 1:27

standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;
