
Live Grateful

Num 11:1-2

Now the people became like those who complain of adversity in the hearing of the Lord; and when the Lord heard it, His anger was kindled, and the fire of the Lord burned among them and consumed some of the outskirts of the camp.

Phil 2:14-15

Do all things without grumbling or disputing; so that you will prove yourselves to be blameless and innocent, children of God above reproach in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation

The dangers of living without gratitude

Ingratitude:

1. Distorts our view of reality

Num 11:4-6

The rabble who were among them had greedy desires; and also the sons of Israel wept again and said, "Who will give us meat to eat? "We remember the fish which we used to eat free in Egypt, the cucumbers and the melons and the leeks and the onions and the garlic, but now our appetite is gone. There is nothing at all to look at except this manna."

Num 11:4-6

Ingratitude focuses on what hasn't happened instead of what has happened.

Ingratitude:

1. Distorts our view of God and others

2. Reveals our heart towards God and others

The heart of an ungrateful person is an entitled heart

My greatest frustration with God and others isn't that they've failed me but that they didn't meet the expectations I put on them!

Ingratitude:

1. Distorts our view of God and others
2. Reveals our heart towards God and others
3. Damages our relationship with God and others

Num 11:20
because you have rejected the Lord who is among you and have wept before Him, saying, "Why did we ever leave Egypt?""

James 5:9

Do not complain, brethren, against one another,
so that you yourselves may not be judged;
behold, the Judge is standing right at the door

Ps 100:4

Enter His gates with thanksgiving

And His courts with praise.

Give thanks to Him, bless His name.
