DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

John 14:24-31

“The Holy Spirit Who revealed and inspired God’s written Word through prophets and apostles now teaches that Word to Christ’s people by illuminating their minds with understanding and now reminds them of His Word so they obey it and apply it in life.”

1. Why does God still speak to His people today, and what does it mean for life?
2. What is the meaning of God’s speech for today according to verses 27-29? Is there a difference in having the peace of God and having peace with God? Explain.
3. Why is faith in a sovereign father the only way out of fear for the troubled believer? What does it mean for the believer to serve a sovereign father daily? What keeps us from completely trusting in a sovereign father?
4. How is a believer’s faith deepened by the Holy Spirit as teacher? How are believers led by the Spirit?
5. In verses 30-31, what is the motive behind God’s speech today? How does the Word of God bring life to us?
6. Are the Father’s voice and the Spirit’s work always in alignment with one another? Why or why not?
7. Describe your personal relationship with the Holy Spirit? How has he “helped” you?
