

Give Yourself (and your kids) a Fighting Chance

Mark 10:13-16

1. What part of your childhood was most formative for you? Why?
2. Why did the disciples try to keep children from coming to Jesus?
3. What does it mean to receive the Kingdom of God like a child?
4. Jesus allowed children to “interrupt” his plans. What kind of interruptions do you think God is trying to get you to embrace?
5. Discipline without relationship leads to rebellion. In what ways can parents best balance both discipline and relationship? If you're not a parent - how did your parents do this?
6. How can we apply this message as a group?
