

Mark 16:1-13

1. What have you learned from the two weeks in this parable? What has stuck out to you?
2. The feeling of being “rich” is largely subjective. How can we encourage faithfulness regardless of the amount of resources we have?
3. The right use of worldly wealth is always for otherworldly ends. What does this look like? How do we use our resources to impact eternity?
4. How have these sermons impacted your view of eternity?
5. Are there any needs we could meet as a group? What are they?
