“The faith believers profess doesn’t always produce the faithfulness Christ deserves.”

1. Thinking about Colossians 1:2, Paul speaks grace and peace over the church. These are two characteristics the world needs a little more of. How can you express grace and peace to others this week?
2. In verse 5, Paul mentions the gospel. What is the true gospel according to scripture?
3. In verses 5-8, how does faith in Christ become faithfulness to Christ? What brings lasting faithfulness to Christ?
4. When do you find your faith growing the most? Is that always an enjoyable experience?
5. How can appreciation of where God has brought us from (alienation and enemies) to where we are now (reconciled as God’s children) help strengthen our faith moving forward?
6. What kind of Jesus do I believe in, really? What is the hope I live for daily?
