2 Samuel 7:18–29 | “Do As You Have Spoken”

1. How does the passage describe David’s posture before the Lord (his view of himself in relation to God)?

2. Have you ever been tempted to stop praying for something because it felt too big? How does the passage show us that nothing is too big for God?

3. What’s your reaction to the truth that God knows everything about you? How should this affect the way we pray?

4. Does it seem strange that we should pray for things that God has already promised? Why or why not?

5. In what other ways is David’s prayer a model that teaches us how to pray?
