

1. In what way(s) is God like a shepherd for us?
2. Can you look back on your life and say that “there is far more of the hand of God in our life than there is of your own hand?”
3. Does walking through the valley of the shadow of death suggest God has forsaken us?
4. What is the significance of the table that God has set before us?
5. Does the promise that “surely goodness and mercy will follow us all the days of our life” guarantee that only good things will happen to us?