

1. What is a fool?
2. Can a person be a functional atheist even if they say they believe in God?
3. How might David's interaction with Nabal in 1 Samuel 25 have led him to conclude that "there is none who does good?"
4. One commentator said, "'Atheism bears its proper fruit in rotten conduct.'" What does that mean, and do you think it is true?
5. Why is hope "that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion" the opposite of foolishness?
