

Small Group Questions: Luke 13:1-9

January 4, 2026

1. How does a proper Christian view of God's judgment keep us from the two ditches of excessive hatred of justice and excessive glee over the justice?

2. Is suffering evidence that a person is a worse sinner than other people who suffer less?

3. How does the presence of suffering in this world serve a warning light that should lead us to repentance?

4. Is the wrath of God fair? Why does God have the right to cut down fig trees that don't grow figs?

5. What is repentance? How can we repent in a way that ensures we will not perish?
