Sermon Questions: Luke 24:13–35 November 8, 2026

1. The two disciples were sad and disillusioned by Jesus' death because they thought he was going to redeem Israel. How can our unmet expectations sometimes keep us from recognizing and trusting what God is actually doing?

2. Beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, Jesus interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. How does understanding the Bible as a unified story centered on Christ change the way we read the Old Testament?

3. The two disciples move from sad, slow hearts to hearts that burn within them. How do Christians develop a heart that burns for Christ?

4. After the women remembered Jesus words (vs. 8), they returned to Jerusalem to tell their story. Similarly, after the disciples' eyes are opened, they travel to Jerusalem to recount what they had learned. What do these stories tell us about the Christian impulse to share the gospel?
