

1. Does every Christian experience hitting “rock bottom” at some point in their lives?
2. How do we strengthen ourselves in the Lord our God?
3. How does this story prove that the battle belongs to the Lord (1 Chronicles 20:15)? Why is this relevant for us even if we aren’t enlisted in Israel’s army?
4. Is it unfair for God to reward people the same as those who have worked longer or harder in this life (See Matthew 20:1–16)?
5. What does David’s gifts to the elders of Israel teach us about God’s view of leadership?
