

Small Group Questions: Luke 11:5–13

October 12, 2025

1. How is the work of prayer different than the kinds of works that the disciples, the lawyer, and Martha were doing at the end of Luke 10?

2. What is impudence, and in what sense should that characterize the way we pray?

3. How does the fatherly love of God shape the way we view prayer?

4. Does the promise that “everyone who asks receives” mean that every request we make to God will be answered?

5. Why is the giving of the Holy Spirit the ultimate good gift that God can give to his children?

GFC App
Google

Apple

