1. How does the expectation of a coming Messiah help explain how people responded to Jesus?
2. What customs of the law did Mary and Joseph keep, and why was it important for Jesus to keep the Old Testament ordinances?
3. What did Simeon believe about the Messiah that brought him so much hopeful expectation?
4. Why does Simeon say that Jesus is salvation for all peoples, and then say he is appointed for the rise and fall of many? Is this a contradiction?
5. What made Anna's (and Simeon's) testimony about Jesus being the Messiah so powerful?
