

1. Can a person follow God without repenting of sin?
2. Are there particular sins that are easier for Christians to tolerate, or to assume we can continue in without it affecting our relationship with God?
3. The people of Israel invite Samuel to be their judge. How does this provide a pattern to help us understand our relationship with Jesus as Christians?
4. In some ways, 1st Samuel 7 is the mirror image of 1st Samuel 4. What makes the difference?
5. What are ebenezers in your life that help you remember God's help?