

1. What do we mean when we say that God is omniscient, omnipresent, and omnipotent?
2. Is it comforting or discomfoting to know that God knows everything that we do and think?
3. Why might David find encouragement that “even the darkness is not dark” to God?
4. How should verses 13 & 14 shape our view of the sanctity of human life?
5. Is David right to hate those who hate the LORD?
