

1. What is the significance of the similarities between chapter 23-24 and chapter 26?
2. Is an open door a sign of God's will? How should Christians seek to discern God's will?
3. What similarities do you see between Saul's particular kinds of injustice/unrighteousness and the kinds of things we struggle with today?
4. Do you think David responded appropriately after Saul's apology?