

1. Do you consider the word of the LORD to be rare in our day?
2. Why and how do people perish when there is no vision? (Proverbs 29:18)
3. Are Samuel's words, "Speak LORD, for your servant hears," a prayer that we can repeat?
4. How can Christians do a good job of proclaiming the hard truths of the Bible without losing compassion? Have you had someone speak firm truths to you in a way that demonstrated this well?
5. When Samuel tells Eli about God's coming judgment, Eli replies; "It is the LORD. Let him do what seems good to him." Would you respond that way?
