Sermon Questions: Luke 24:1–12 November 1, 2026

1. The women were perplexed, and the angels responded with a question: "Why do you seek the living among the dead?" How does this question challenge the women's expectations?

2. The angels did not try to convince the women or strengthen their faith primarily by appealing to the physical and supernatural evidence surrounding the scene. Instead, they appealed to the words Jesus had already taught them. What does this tell us about the importance of grounding our faith in God's word?

3. One preacher asked, "Have you ever thought about the fact that the greatest obstacle to Christianity getting off the ground wasn't the unbelief of the religious leaders, but the unbelief of the disciples?" Why do you think Jesus' followers were slow in believing that Jesus was resurrected?

4. Why is the resurrection an indispensable part of the Christian gospel?
