

1. Should Christians inquire of the Lord in order to make decisions in our lives?
2. How does David's words in verse 6, "may the Lord show steadfast love and kindness to you, and I will do 'this' good to you" instruct Christians about how to pray for each other?
3. Do the political complexities of the situation in Jabesh-gilead affect the way you view David's sincerity?
4. How does David's rejection by the 11 other tribes of Israel compare to Jesus' reception in his earthly ministry?
