Luke 17:11–19 | “The Ten Lepers”

1. What can we learn from the fact that Jesus told the lepers to present themselves to the priests before they were actually healed?
2. How does the mixed group of lepers reflect our own natural condition as human beings?
3. In what way did the Samaritan receive something better than the nine who did not return?
4. How can we cultivate a spirit of gratitude in the Christian life?
