2 Samuel 6:12–23 | “David’s Dance”

1. How do David and the Israelites exemplify repentance in this passage? What did they repent of, and how does their repentance teach us about the holiness of God?
2. What is your reaction to the expressive and energetic worship that we see from David and the Israelites? What does David’s worship teach us about the heart-attitude with which we should worship God?
3. How is Michal’s attitude radically different than David’s?
4. In our worship, or in our Christian lives in general, how are we at times guilty of being controlled by what other people might think?
5. In what ways does this story remind us of our salvation in Christ?
