

1. Is fear always a sinful emotion?
2. Why would the judgment of God be something that gives us confidence when we are afraid?
3. Why would the image of God storing tears in a bottle give someone hope?
4. People can obviously harm and even kill other people, so why does David twice ask, "What can flesh/man do to me?"
5. Why would worship and sacrifices of praise make us more courageous people?