2 Samuel 4 | “The Fall of the House of Saul”

1. What do you think our overall assessment should be of Ish-bosheth as a man and as a leader? What are his failures, but also how is he “righteous” as David says? (v. 11)

2. What motivated Baanah and Rechab to kill Ish-bosheth? How did they “take the Lord’s name in vain”? In what ways can people today do the same thing?

3. How does David set an example that is different than everyone else in the story? How do we see his faith in action?

4. How is King David a picture of King Jesus? In that light, what does this story teach us about how to come to Christ?
