

1. What is freedom? Do you think people have different ideas in mind about what it means to be free?
2. Raging implies something destructive and wild. Have you noticed a connection between hating authority and wild and self-destructive patterns? Why are these things connected?
3. God laughs at our raging and holds us in derision? What different factors makes our desire to be out from under God's authority both silly and sinful?
4. How does Jesus' reign as king unite the nations?
5. How do you reconcile verses that claim that God is slow to anger with verses that say His wrath may be quickly kindled? (Jonah 4:2; Psalm 2:12)
6. Can a person be a Christian without recognizing Christ as their King?
